Committee Reports:

Social--Jones reporting: The dance Feb. 12 realized a profit of $333.30; it was attended by 514 couples.

The All Campus Social Committee seems to be a success. All housing units contacted responded. The next meeting of the group will be February 21.

The next dance will be held Feb. 22 with a Washington's Birthday theme.

Pep Sessions--Thompson reporting: In response to the letter to Mr. Clevenger concerning Yell Leader's sweaters, Mr. Clevenger advises the Board that we cannot award I sweaters to all of the Yell Leaders. He explained that the Athletic Board wants to reserve I sweater awards for inter-scholastic competition only. He suggested that we might use sweaters with an IU monogram.

Town Hall--Weber reporting: The discussion on Compulsory Physical Education last Sunday was attended by 25 people. The next discussion will be held on March 3. The topic will be Final Examinations.

Records--Steckler reporting: There were two Record Hours held over vacation. About 70 people attended each program.

Investigation of visiting hours at the Auditorium--Steckler reporting: Mr Whallon says that the expense involved in opening the Auditorium makes any attempt to have visiting hours impractical. The investigation will not be pursued

Committee Reports:

Social--Mr. Smith reporting: There were 240 single tickets sold to the George Washington Dance last Friday. The dance realized a net loss of $41.00. The cause for the failure was laid to the fact that the High School Sectional basketball tournaments were played last Friday night. No plans have been made for any future dances.

Pep Sessions--Thompson reporting: There will be a basketball pep session tonight in Alumni Hall honoring the team for its fine seasonal record. The speakers will be Mr Good, Mr. Clevenger, Mr. Mc Cracken, Major Reed, and Pete Pihos. The cheerleaders and the band will be on hand to round out the program.

Special Committee for "Union Day" Program--Thompson reporting: The plans first laid were to have a Mardi Gras type of program, but it seems that some other organization has already planned to use that theme. The investigation will be continued.

Chess--Duncan reporting: The Chess Club will meet Thursday in the Union Building to elect officers.

Records-- Steckler reporting: About 75 people attended the Record Hour last Friday night.
