Committee Reports:

Social--Mr. Smith reporting: There were 240 single tickets sold to the George Washington Dance last Friday. The dance realized a net loss of $41.00. The cause for the failure was laid to the fact that the High School Sectional basketball tournaments were played last Friday night. No plans have been made for any future dances.

Pep Sessions--Thompson reporting: There will be a basketball pep session tonight in Alumni Hall honoring the team for its fine seasonal record. The speakers will be Mr Good, Mr. Clevenger, Mr. Mc Cracken, Major Reed, and Pete Pihos. The cheerleaders and the band will be on hand to round out the program.

Special Committee for "Union Day" Program--Thompson reporting: The plans first laid were to have a Mardi Gras type of program, but it seems that some other organization has already planned to use that theme. The investigation will be continued.

Chess--Duncan reporting: The Chess Club will meet Thursday in the Union Building to elect officers.

Records-- Steckler reporting: About 75 people attended the Record Hour last Friday night.

Billiards--Hunter reporting: The billiard tournament will be postponed until we receive further word from Mr. Charles Peterson concerning his intended visit to the campus.

President Kyle pointed out that the plans for a Union Service Award Banquet should be started soon. Bob Gates suggested that we combine the Service Award Banquet and the Union Board Banquet. Discussion on the matter was tabled until the next meeting.

There will be a meeting Thursday in Town Hall of all Union Service Workers. Each man will hand in his work preference at that time, and the Service work will be explained.

Next Tuesday the Selection Committee will choose two men from the Service workers to fill the Board for the rest of the term.

Stan Steckler was elected unanimously to serve as the Board member on the Selection Committee.

The Board decided to sponsor campus guide service on the day of the High School Semi-Finals here in Bloomington. Service workers will be used as guides.

Steckler suggested that the Union Board sponsor a Bridge Tournament for the students--especially the married veterans. Steckler was appointed to investigate the possibilities of such a tournament.

Hunter moved that the meeting be adjourned. Duncan seconded. The motion was carried.

SocialJones reporting: The All-Campus Social Committee met last Thursday. Those present seemed to think that they could remedy the social short-comings of the campus. To date, however, they have managed to bring up the same old causes with no new solutions.

No dance has been planed for this week-end.

The Dugout will be open from 9-12 this Saturday night.

There will be a free record dance this Saturday after the Semi-Finals Tournament.

Union-A.W.S. will sponsor a dance the night before Spring vacation. The theme will be a 1¢ sale--60¢ per person, 61¢ per couple.
