Committee Reports:

Social--Jones reporting: The plans for the dance April 17 have been completed. Bob Mc Curdy's band will play. The Commons will be open.

Records--Steckler reporting: There were 50 people at the Pop Program Wednesday, and 80 people attended the Classical Hour Friday night. There will be no record hours this week due to the vacation.

Chess--Duncan reporting: The next meeting of the Chess Club will be held in the Union April 25.

Bridge--Elsner reporting: The Delta Upsilon team won the Men's Tournament. Keys are being purchased for the members.

Billiards--Hunter reporting: The play started yesterday. No further report.

Banquet--Mr Smith reporting: Bob Gates has prepared a list of the men to be invited to the Banquet. The date of May 7 is not available.

Jones moved that the Union Board Banquet be held Wednesday, May 1 rather than May 7. Elsner seconded. The motion was carried.

Invitations will be sent out this week. C. Walter "Mickey" McArty will be invited as Toastmaster.

The Board decided not to have a Senior Farewell Banquet.

Mr. Smith requested 15 service workers for Monday, April 29 to care for members of the Opera cast. Steckler was put in charge.

Mr. Smith suggested that we "push the Commons". We need publicity.

Thompson moved that the meeting be adjourned. Elsner seconded. The motion was carried.

Committee Reports:

Social--Jones reporting: There was a profit of $14.57 realized on the dance April 17; 293 couples attended. McCurdy will play for a dance Friday, April 26. He will be paid $90. or sixty per cent of the gate whichever is greater.

George Lamb, Editor-in-chief, has promised to give editorial support in the Student to the Union A.W.S. activities.

Records--Steckler reporting: There were no Record Hours last week. This week, just the Classic Hour will be presented on Friday night.

Personell--Duncan reporting: The Service Hours are now up to date with the exception of those the Board members have failed to report.

Billiards--Hunter reporting: There are 49 men entered in all three sections of the tournament. The first round will be completed this Saturday. The Tournament will run for three more weeks.

Banquet--Plummer reporting: The letters of invitation are in the process of going out. The program is almost complete. The dinner music has not yet been arranged. Plans are to invite Mr. George Henley as toastmaster.

Dean Bates requested that we do not "go long hair" for the dinner music. The Board voiced its approval.

Dean Bates also suggested that, rather than present keys to the winners of competitions, such as the Bridge Tournament, a cup or plaque with the winner's names engraved thereon be presented to the organization represented by the winning team.

President Kyle read a letter sent to Mr. Smith from John C. Thompson, director of safety for the University Schools, requesting that Union
