Meeting came to order at 7:00

Jones Presiding.

Gene Fisher and others petitioned the Board to sponsor a club that would promote Barbershop quartet singing.

Minutes were read and approved.

Social: The social affairs committee voted down the dance that was to be held before the Christmas Holidays.

Chess and Bridge: Chess is meeting regularly on Monday night. Also a letter has been received in regards to a National Bridge tournament. A tentative date for Indiana's part in the tournament could be December 15.

Pep Sessions: Jawn Purdue was dully buried in state. A quarter back hour for the Purdue game is to be held a week from Thursday.

Record Hours: New records are being ordered. A record hour is to be held Thanksgiving afternoon. Also a Christmas record hour is to be held.

Camera: Officers of the Camera Club have been elected. The dark room has been procured. Publicity for the club is in process. The club desired Union sponsorship.

Campus Relations: The letter recieved at the last meeting has been submitted to Col. Shoemaker who is taking it to Harold Jordan who is giving the through problem into an open discussion December eight.

New Business:

Lambert submitted a letter from Student Council, written by I. S. A. Pointing out the inadequacy of Union recreational facilities. The I. S. A. desires that Union Board take over Town House and provide it for recreation. Jones appointed Wallace to investigate.

Elsner moved the Board sponsor a bridge tournament in conjunction with the National Bridge Tournament: Passed.

Graves moved we co-sponsor the camera club with the M R C A. A discussion was held. The motion passed.

Wallace brought up the memorial plaque for Ward Biddle. The union will have to pay for it and it will cost approximately $100. If we purchase the plaque it should be unveiled on May first. Wallace moved we appropriate $100 to buy the Plaque. Motion passed. The board passed also that it should be unveiled May first.

Graves complained of the poor school spirit and suggested a phamplet be drawn up giving the yells and songs. A discussion was held on this. No approval was given of this suggestion, as the board felt lack of knowledge of yells and songs was not the trouble with the school spirit. Jones asked that a big pep session be held this Friday. Passed.

Elsner moved the union sponsor the quartet club. Thompson seconded the motion. Passed unanimously. Jones appointed Barton Grabow to represent the Union with the club.

The effort to make the Men's Union a student Union was brought up and deferred until next week. When all Board members are asked to attend.

Campbell moved we adjourn. Thompson seconded. Adjourned at 8:30.
