

March 18, 1947

Meeting come to order at 7:10; President Jones presiding
Campbell was absent.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Social Committee: The dance last week end lost $135. As a new phase on April 28, we are going to sponsor a barn dance.
The band will be Bob Hardy and his group.

Admission will be $.72 per couple and .36 per single.

Personell: There have only been 6 or 7 men submitted for work in the office in the mornings. Lambert asked that this service be discontinued. Discussion was held on this and it was decided to continue the presint system.

Bowling: Trials for the team are still going on. The report of the yell leaders recommendation committee was differred until next week.

Selection Committee Report: The following men were appointed to Union Board for 1947-48 Juniors: Harry Wallace, Glen Graves, and King Traub. Sophomores: Richard Hawley, James Toy, and Hugh Husband.

New Business:

Fague reported that the Falcon Club wishes to sponsor in the afternoon in Alumni Hall a tea. The board granted permission to the Falcon Club.

Jones appointed Lambert to assemble the list of service award winners. Plummer and Black were appointed to assist.

Jones asked for a explanation about our taking over Lobby for Hobbies. Mr. Smith informed the board that the organizers of the club asked us to assimilate the organization. The story in the student was a mistake as no action has been taken as yet. Kaiser reported the activities of Lobby for Hobbies to the board.

Discussion was held on the various elements of the organizations and Jones directed the holdover members of the board to meet with the directors of Lobby for Hobbies. The activities of Lobby for Hobbies are: bowling, dancing, hiking, horse back riding, photography, jass club, and classical music club.

Lambert moved we assimilate the above clubs of Lobby for Hobbies.
Thomas seconded. Passed

Thomas adked when the tickets awarded the winners of the yell contest would be delivered. It was explained that the winners names are on the list to be submitted free to this semesters Union-AWS dance.

Mr. Smith mentioned that the general election is coming up soon. Forms can be picked up at the men's lounge. Jones read the rules of the election to the board.

Thomas moved we adjourn.
