The Union Service Award Banquet was held tonight at 6:15 P.M. Following the meal Pres. Wallace introduced the guests, who included Dr. Beck, Dr. Edmonson, Mr. Horton and Mr. Hudson. He then introduced Mr. Wheeler who officially inducted Freeman Hinds Jr. into the Union Board. Then he in turn introduced Mr. Harold Jordan who, after a short speech, presented the service awards to those who were approved at last week's meeting. All the service award winners were present except James Schram. The Banquet was adjourned at 7:45.

The meeting was called to order at 7 P.M., Pres. Wallace presiding. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Special Events:

Seventeen acceptances have already been received for the Union Board Reunion Banquet.

Record Hour:

The committee has drawn up a list of 10 albums which it desires to purchase. It was agreed that the committee be empowered to go ahead and do this.

Photography:

The club is to be addressed by Kodak Club Nov. 12. A salon is to be established in which members' pictures will be displayed free and non-members' pictures for a .50¢ charge. Traub discussed the matter of publicity with the men of the Board acquainted with the Rogers area.

Personnel:

Reports were due this week, and henceforth will be due the first meeting after the 15th and 31st respectively. Graves is to make a notation whenever a service worker fails to show up, notify the man, and keep his card out for a while.

Pep Sessions:

A pep session will be held Thursday evening at 6 P.M. in front of the Union Building to send the team off to Michigan. Cheer leaders from high schools are to meet in a statewide convention for the purpose of exchanging ideas. Toy reported that he had discussed the proposed seating plan for athletic contests at the meeting of the Student Recreational Committee. He moved that the plan as set forth in the minutes of the last meeting be approved. Motion carried unanimously.

Old Business:

Pres. Wallace appointed Graves, Lambert, Patton and Hawley to the Student Union Committee. Also, Dr. Lusk is to sit in.

The question of the opening of the Grille was raised, particularly concerning why Union Board was not advised of the matter. Graves advised the Board that Aeons' only interest was in seeing the thing get done, and that Aeons would be more than glad to let Union Board handle it.

New Business:

Graves reported that Bob Barto, Pres of Community Chest, had extended his thanks to Union Board, and that he wished to request further for Union Service workers to work on posters.

The Wed. and Thurs. broadcasts by Fred Waring are to be open to all ticket holders.

Graves, after explaining its desirability, moved that the Board of Aeons Room be returned to them for their exclusive use. QUEAR seconded. The motion was carried unanimously.

Hinds presented a letter to Pres. Wallace which expressed a similar request from YMCA for the use of Room 311. The matter was tabled until next week.

Graves also brought up the question of corsages which Aeons had previously written us about. Traub moved that we tell Aeons that such a move is not at all necessary. The motion was defeated 5-4. Graves is to raise the question at the next Aeons meeting.

Meeting adjourned at 8:40.

The meeting was called to order at 7 P.M., Pres. Wallace presiding. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Steckel, Husband, Traub and Graves appeared late.

Special Events:

The theme for the Union Board Reunion Banquet was discussed.

Town Hall:

Husband reported that attendance is still very poor.

Chess:

The students beat the faculty in chess.

Social:

Plans have been made for the Opening of Formal Season; Sam Donahue is to play. There is to be a Union-AWS dance Friday for $1.20.

Old Business:

Traub reported on his interview with the Board of Aeons. The Grille is to open Saturday, Nov. 15, and will be open Wed. and Fri. nights and Sat. afternoon and night. It was agreed not to have special entertainment the opening night. The possibility of having different housing units furnish entertainment each week was discussed.

Graves moved that Union Board support Aeons proposal that only 3 dances, Opening of Formal Season, Military Ball, and the Junior Prom, be corsage dances. The motion was defeated 7-5.

Mr. Smith reported that the net profit on Fred Waring's show was about $2000. He also reported that in the month of July the Union operated at a loss of $2404.

Mr. Smith read a communication from the Board of Trustees which indicated they were planning to revamp the 3rd floor to provide larger quarters for the Alumni office. They asked that we grant permission to name a new room to be constructed on the second floor the Whittenberger Room. Toy moved and Lambert seconded that we do so. Husband made and later withdrew an amendment. The motion was carried by a vote of 11-1.

Wallace asked that the Publicity Committee be abolished, and that temporarily he be put on a committee to investigate the general situation regarding space. Toy and Hinds are to be on this committee.
