

The Wed. and Thurs. broadcasts by Fred Waring are to be open to all ticket holders.

Graves, after explaining its desirability, moved that the Board of Aeons Room be returned to them for their exclusive use. QUEAR seconded. The motion was carried unanimously.

Hinds presented a letter to Pres. Wallace which expressed a similar request from YMCA for the use of Room 311. The matter was tabled until next week.

Graves also brought up the question of corsages which Aeons had previously written us about. Traub moved that we tell Aeons that such a move is not at all necessary. The motion was defeated 5-4. Graves is to raise the question at the next Aeons meeting.

Meeting adjourned at 8:40.

The meeting was called to order at 7 P.M., Pres. Wallace presiding. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Steckel, Husband, Traub and Graves appeared late.

Special Events:

The theme for the Union Board Reunion Banquet was discussed.

Town Hall:

Husband reported that attendance is still very poor.

Chess:

The students beat the faculty in chess.

Social:

Plans have been made for the Opening of Formal Season; Sam Donahue is to play. There is to be a Union-AWS dance Friday for $1.20.

Old Business:

Traub reported on his interview with the Board of Aeons. The Grille is to open Saturday, Nov. 15, and will be open Wed. and Fri. nights and Sat. afternoon and night. It was agreed not to have special entertainment the opening night. The possibility of having different housing units furnish entertainment each week was discussed.

Graves moved that Union Board support Aeons proposal that only 3 dances, Opening of Formal Season, Military Ball, and the Junior Prom, be corsage dances. The motion was defeated 7-5.

Mr. Smith reported that the net profit on Fred Waring's show was about $2000. He also reported that in the month of July the Union operated at a loss of $2404.

Mr. Smith read a communication from the Board of Trustees which indicated they were planning to revamp the 3rd floor to provide larger quarters for the Alumni office. They asked that we grant permission to name a new room to be constructed on the second floor the Whittenberger Room. Toy moved and Lambert seconded that we do so. Husband made and later withdrew an amendment. The motion was carried by a vote of 11-1.

Wallace asked that the Publicity Committee be abolished, and that temporarily he be put on a committee to investigate the general situation regarding space. Toy and Hinds are to be on this committee.

Hinds gave a report on the activities of YMCA, and moved that Union Board recommend to the Board of Trustees that Room 311 be returned to them. After having been tabled and later brought on the floor again, the motion was finally passed by a vote of 7-4.

Toy reported that the statewide cheerleader's convention is to be held January 17. He moved that the necessary expenses which will amount to roughly $50 be approved. The motion was carried unanimously.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:35 P.M.

November 18, 1947

The meeting was called to order by Pres. Wallace.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Social:

A loss of $114.20 was incurred on the last dance as only 53 tickets were sold.

Special Events:

Members were reminded once more of the Union Board Reunion Banquet.

Pep Sessions:

Plans were announced for the Burial of Jawn Purdue. Toy read excerpts from the script which, amazingly enough, were still there Thursday.

Grille:

The attendance at the grille was very gratifying at its opening, but it seems that the patrons go to dance and not to spend money.

Chess:

The chess team is to meet Purdue Saturday morning.

Personnel:

Graves has appointed two new assistant chairmen--Sam Greene and Lindy Moss.

Old Business:

Sec. Wallace gave a partial report on the room space situation--a complete report will be given at the next meeting.

New Business:

Pres. Wallace read a letter from A.W.S. requesting that they be permitted to contact men students to request their aid in a program for providing for needy families at Christmas time. By a unanimous vote this request was granted.

Mr. Smith announced that a Yuletide dinner is to be held Sun. December 14 introducing the Madrigal Singers of I.U. Tickets are to be $1.75. He asked that Union Board vote to sponsor it. Toy so moved and Hawley seconded. The motion was carried unanimously.

Toy had the idea of the century--that Union Board members should get complimentary tickets to all functions held in Alumni Hall. No definite action was taken.

Student Union Committee:

Two committees have been appointed. The first is to determine how members shall be chosen and the second is to determine the basis for representation.

The question of the sad attendance at our dances was raised by Husband who suggested that each dance be given a name and more publicity
