

Hinds gave a report on the activities of YMCA, and moved that Union Board recommend to the Board of Trustees that Room 311 be returned to them. After having been tabled and later brought on the floor again, the motion was finally passed by a vote of 7-4.

Toy reported that the statewide cheerleader's convention is to be held January 17. He moved that the necessary expenses which will amount to roughly $50 be approved. The motion was carried unanimously.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:35 P.M.

The meeting was called to order by Pres. Wallace.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Social:

A loss of $114.20 was incurred on the last dance as only 53 tickets were sold.

Special Events:

Members were reminded once more of the Union Board Reunion Banquet.

Pep Sessions:

Plans were announced for the Burial of Jawn Purdue. Toy read excerpts from the script which, amazingly enough, were still there Thursday.

Grille:

The attendance at the grille was very gratifying at its opening, but it seems that the patrons go to dance and not to spend money.

Chess:

The chess team is to meet Purdue Saturday morning.

Personnel:

Graves has appointed two new assistant chairmen--Sam Greene and Lindy Moss.

Old Business:

Sec. Wallace gave a partial report on the room space situation--a complete report will be given at the next meeting.

New Business:

Pres. Wallace read a letter from A.W.S. requesting that they be permitted to contact men students to request their aid in a program for providing for needy families at Christmas time. By a unanimous vote this request was granted.

Mr. Smith announced that a Yuletide dinner is to be held Sun. December 14 introducing the Madrigal Singers of I.U. Tickets are to be $1.75. He asked that Union Board vote to sponsor it. Toy so moved and Hawley seconded. The motion was carried unanimously.

Toy had the idea of the century--that Union Board members should get complimentary tickets to all functions held in Alumni Hall. No definite action was taken.

Student Union Committee:

Two committees have been appointed. The first is to determine how members shall be chosen and the second is to determine the basis for representation.

The question of the sad attendance at our dances was raised by Husband who suggested that each dance be given a name and more publicity extended; Dr. Lusk suggested that a spirit of competition between the various schools on campus might help.

Toy moved that the selection committee for cheer leaders be empowered to select "a maximum of 8 cheer leaders, not more than 2 of whom shall be girls." The motion was tabled.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:05 P.M.

The biennial Union Board Reunion Banquet was held tonight. Mr. Wheeler, serving as Master of Ceremonies, initiated the program by introducing Pres. Wallace who gave a short welcoming speech. Mr. Smith followed with the greetings from those absent. Mr. Hastings then gave a brief tribute to those who have passed on. Pres. Emeritus Bryan, whom we were proud to have with us, addressed the group after which werwere forced to repair to the Bryan Room where all the old members were given an opportunity to reminisce on their days on the Board. Perhaps the most notable event was the recollections of Dr. Coggeshall.

The meeting was called to order by Pres. Wallace.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Lambert, Husband, Traub, and Steckel were late.

Social:

Tickets are going fast for the Opening of Formal Season. Plans have been made to have Spanish guitar players downstairs from 10-12:30.

Pres. Wallace said that too many Board members have been wandering around behind the Main desk and operating the switchboard and that this will have to stop.

The motion concerning cheer leaders which was tabled last week was brought up and voted upon. It was carried by a vote of 9-4.

Pres. Wallace read a letter from Y.M.C.A. inviting him to attend a panel group on student government to consist of the presidents of student organizations plus a limited number of others interested. Husband moved and Steckel seconded to allocate $1.00 to cover the expenses of the leader.

Pep Sessions:

The Howling Hoosiers will not participate at the first couple of basketball games to see if good cheering can be accomplished without them.

The Board extended a vote of thanks to Steckel for his fine work on the Union Board Reunion Banquet.

Mr. Smith reminded the Board of the current power shortage.

Traub reminded everyone that we still do not have our picture on our stationery. This was explained by the recent changes in the Board this fall.

The question of the lack of available revised constitutions was raised and it was agreed to have 400 copies mimeographed.

Toy moved that all Union Board members be given passes which would admit them to all open dances. Traub seconded. The motion was tabled.

Husband once more raised the problem of promoting our own dances.
