

The fact that the Grille has so far not been a financial success was partially blamed upon the fact that both the Grille and the Commons are open at the same time. Traub is to see Mr. Jordan to see if this can be changed.

Traub is also to see Annabelle Hollingsworth to discuss the possibility of resuming the dancing class.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:50.

The meeting was called to order by Pres. Wallace at 7 P.M.
The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Town Hall:

Husband reported that there is a strong possibility that their will be successful in their efforts to get Town Hall over the radio.

Record Hour:

There is to be a jazz record hour Tuesdays from 7-8 P.M.

Old Business:

After Toy and Traub reported on their visits to acquire information concerning complimentary tickets to all functions in Alumni Hall, Steckel moved and Graves seconded that Board members should have "normal pass privileges" to dances held in the Union Bldg. This privilege is based on our responsibility for what goes on. The motion was carried unanimously.

Harry Wallace reported on the meeting with the Building and Grounds committee concerning meeting room space. He reported that this group made the following recommendations:

1. Sigma Delta Chi room to be reserved at 10 P.M. for their Tuesday night meeting and at 7 P.M. for Student Council for their Thursday night meeting; otherwise it will be open for general use.
2. 313 to be used as an office for Sigma Delta Chi and Student Council.
3. 311 to be returned to the YMCA for its exclusive use.
4. Board of Aeons room to be returned to them for their exclusive use except from June 15 to September 15.
5. Phi Delta Phi to be returned to them for their exclusive use except for the hours of 4-9 P.M.; also reserved for them for their bi-weekly meetings.

Graves moved and Lambert seconded that Union Board support this recommendation. Motion carried unanimously.

After hearing Mr. Smith's report, Wallace moved and Graves seconded that we sign with Carmen Cavallero to give 2 shows Tuesday March 2 for a $2000 guarantee against 60%. The motion was carried unanimously.

Pres. Wallace brought up a suggestion from Dr. Bryan concerning ice-skating on one of the practice fields. It was pointed out that the shortage of water in Bloomington would render this unfeasible at the present time.

Husband moved that the Union Board room be open for meetings. Motion carried unanimously.

It was the general consensus of opinion that we should allow no sound apparatus in the lower lobby.

Mr. Smith reported that since the beginning of the fiscal year the Union has lost $2680.

Husband moved that all Union Board members be given a key to room .
202. Motion carried unanimously.

The meeting was called to order at 7 P.M. by Pres. Wallace.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Graves, Toy, Steckel, Quear and Husband were late.

Social:

The net profit from the Opening of Formal Season was reported to be $717.77 making an overall profit for the year of $765.39.

Pep Sessions:

The Howling Hoosiers are to be started again. Traub suggested that the poor yells be dropped.

Old Business:

Traub reported that in regard to ice-skating a portable freezing device would be too expensive, but that flooding a field is probably possible.

The grille will be closed on the nights of big dances, but otherwise it is planned to carry it along for quite some time.

Mr. Smith reported on the concerts held so far this year as follows: (1) Profit from Granz concert--$141.17; (2) Profit from Waring concert--$1964.81.

Mr. Smith read a letter from Jerry Rothstein requesting complete information on all our concerts. Graves moved that it be provided. Motion carried unanimously.

It was decided that complimentary tickets should be definitely restricted to active members of Union Board.

Patton reported that there was a poor turnout at the jazz record hour.

The Indiana Union Yuletide Dinner Concert was a huge success and is to be continued.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 8:26.
