

New Business

Mr. Smith asked Board members to pick up their complimentary tickets to Stan Kenton. Also Mr. Smith announced that the fountain in the Commons would be closed for the next week while a new $15,000. fountain is being installed.

The Vaughn Monroe concert is scheduled for January 18, Mr. Smith told the Board with a possibility of Spitalney's orchestra appearing in March.

Schaerer then brought the Student Senate's Limitation Bill to the attention of the Board and stated that Union Board should take a definite stand on the bill. The bill was then discussed at length however no action was taken.

Baker moved the meeting be adjourned. The motion was seconded and carried and the meeting was adjourned.

Approved by:

Harry L. Wallace

Harry L. Wallace, President

Submitted by:

David H. Baker, Secretary

November 2, 1948-5:45 p.m.

The semi-annual Union Service Award Banquet was held in Room E of the Union Building. After a delicious meal Harry Wallace, acting as toastmaster, introduced the guests of the evening. Those guests present were Dr. William Lowe Bryan, Dr. Frank O. Beck, Mr. Paul Feltus, Mr. B. T. Kaiser, Mr. F. K. Edmondson, Mr. J. R. Currey, and Mr. George F. Heighway.

Harry Wallace then introduced Mr. Smith, Director of the Union, who in turn presented the Union Service Awards to James Alter, Richard Bonewitz, Barney Cockran, Fred Franklin, Thomas Fritch, George Headford, James Hogan, Kenneth Kress, Robert Palmer, Robert Phillips, William Pickering, Robert Skiles, Jack Wine, and Malcolm Witt.

Lawrence Wheeler, President of the Indiana University Foundation, then installed Kenneth Collins, Charles Kelso, and Don Tabbert as new members of the Union Board of Directors.

At this time Harry Wallace presented the proceeds of the Fall Carnival to William Powell, President of the Student Senate.

Dr. William Lowe Bryan was then introduced. After a few remarks by President Emeritus Bryan the meeting was adjourned.

Approved by:

Harry L. Wallace

Harry L. Wallace, President

Submitted by:

David H. Baker, Secretary

November 9, 1948-7:00 p.m.

President Wallace opened the meeting. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

President Wallace then asked the members of the Board to present only urgent problems in order that the meeting might be adjourned in time to attend the Stan Kenton program.

Committee Reports:

Social: McMahon and Collins asked the Board members for names of men to work for "The Rhythm Room". Also they announced that the decorations for the 'Opening of Formal Season' would consist of the Christmas decorations.

Student Spirit: Toy announced that a pep session would be held Wednesday, November 17 at 6:15 p.m. on Jordan Field. The occasion would be the burying of John Purdue.

New Business.

Toy told the Board of President Bryan's birthday, November 11, and asked that the Board sponsor a delegation of campus leaders to visit the President Emeritus on his birthday. The suggestion was approved and the time for the group to assemble was set for 3:15 p.m. Thursday afternoon in the Business and Economics lobby.

President Wallace read note from Walter C. Smith, brother of Lyman Smith and past Board member. He wished to express his wholehearted thanks for being invited to the Union Service Award Banquet.

At this time a motion to adjourn was entertained. The motion was made, seconded, and carried, and the meeting was adjourned.

Approved by:

Submitted by:

Harry L. Wallace
Harry L. Wallace, President

David H. Baker, Secretary

November 16, 1948-7:00 p.m.

President Wallace opened the meeting. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

President Wallace read a note from Dr. William Lowe Bryan thanking the Board for the birthday card which he received.

Committee Reports.

Recreation: Baker reported bowling matches with Purdue, Illinois and Evansville are being scheduled for the Union Bowling Team.

Edwards announced that on Friday, November 19, W.R.A. and the Union Outing Club would hike to Professor Carlson's home where steaks would be grilled.

Special Events: Kelso announced the dedication of the new fountain would held on Saturday afternoon, December 11 with a free coffee hour.

Town Hall: Tabbert reported attendance of about 50 to 75 at Town Hall. The topic for December 5 will be "Is the scope of student government broad enough?". In the future more publicity will be given Town Hall to increase attendance.

Burial of John Purdue; Moss announced the body of John Purdue would lay in state Wednesday, November 17 and the "Old Oaken Bucket" would be on display Thursday, November 18. Both will be under guard.

Student Spirit: Toy reported that 800 students, representing 188 schools, attended the "Cheerleader's Conference. Techniques of cheerleading were explained and new yells were presented.

Fall Carnival: Moss read suggestions by Board members for next year's carnival.

Toys asked about the possibility of purchasing canvas and poles to be used from year to year for the carnival. Bruce Kaiser explained to the Board why this would not be practical.

Publicity: Myers reported that the Alumni newsletter had been mailed.

Personnel: Schaerer asked that personnel reports be turned in every two weeks. Also he reported that all out-of-town football games