Investigation: Steckle reported his committee is continuing to work on the pamphlet of Union activities.

Town Hall: Tabbert announced the streamlining of the Town Hall organization with the establishment of Promotional, Publicity, and Procurement Committees. Also the forum on Final Examinations will be held as planned on Wednesday, January 19.

Mr. Smith gave a satisfactory report of the Vaughn Monroe show. The first attempt at a Saturday night spot will be made with the Horace Heidt show on February 26.

New Business:

Schaerer moved that there be no more recognition of accumulation and tabulation of Union hours for selection in order to expedite the compilation of records, after February 8, 1949.

It was stated that cheerleaders should be paid for a trip to Purdue for a basketball game.

Also mentioned was that one of the trophy cases in the men's lounge could be used for the purpose of displaying the trophies of the honoraries on campus. Mr. Smith expressed the opinion that there would be no objection to this proposal and that an entire case in the men's lounge could be provided for this purpose.

A motion was made, seconded, and passed that the meeting be adjourned. The meeting was adjourned at exactly 7:52 p.m.
