Committee Reports:

Social: Collins reported that the Union-A.W.S. dance on February 12 was a social success but due to poor publicity a deficit of $50.00 was incurred. Collins suggested that hereafter all committee publicity be centralized through the publicity committee.

Due to student's requests the floor shows shall be changed from Wednesday to Friday evening in order to accommodate more people.

Publicity: Myers announced that the Alumni newsletter would soon be in the mails.

Town Hall: Tabbert reported on the 'finals' forum. About 200 people attended and a syllabus of the discussion is being prepared to be sent to the Student Senate. The next forum will be held February 23 at which time Coach Smith will speak. Also letters have sent to all campus organizations promising the facilities of Town Hall to them.

Recreation: Edwards said that the Billiard Tournament is now conducted every Wednesday evening for the period of a month.

Personnel: Schaerer asked that all Union news for the "Daily Student" be turned in at the Board office by 3:00 p.m. each day.

Schaerer also asked that Miss Ellicott be asked to attend the Board meetings in order that she might know the progress of the committees. Schaerer asked that the possibility of holding a boxing tournament in the Union be investigated.

Schaerer then reported his findings on the investigation of the establishment of a radio station by the Board. Schaerer moved that the Union Board undertake to establish a radio station on the Indiana University campus. The motion was properly seconded and after some discussion, passed unanimously. Schaerer also moved to ask Robert Schwartz to sit with the Board in an advisory capacity in establishing the new radio station. The motion was seconded and passed.

Schaerer also reported the plans of the Senior Barbecue. His estimated budget which would accommodate 1893 seniors totaled $833.00. The Board members discussed the Barbecue at length and suggested a few ways of saving money.

Myers moved that any personnel worker who does not report to his job at the appointed time will be penalized by deducting one hour from his accumulated total of Union Service Hours. The motion was seconded and passed.

Mr. Smith reminded the Board of the Horace Heidt performance, Saturday, February 26.

Tabbert moved the meeting be adjourned. The motion was seconded and passed. The meeting was adjourned at 9:12 p.m.
