Social: Board members were reminded that they will be expected to act as hosts at the Union Open House March 29.

Old Business: The balloting for a third hold-over member was continued. After the 65th ballot, Alan Graf made the following statement: "Due to the dissention caused by the deadlock in this balloting, I would like to withdraw my name from the balloting; making it firmly known that I desire to serve on the board next year, and announcing my intention to appear before the selection committee."

Motion(Dye) " This board shall accept Mr. Graf's Statement."

The motion was passed, and on the following ballot Arthur Schwartz was elected to serve as a hold-over member of the board. The rules governing the Union election were read to the board. The election rules are as follows:

The election will be held on April 4, 1950 in the Men's Lounge of the Union. Electioneering will be done only in the lobby and halls. No election poll worker is permitted past the entrance to the Men's Lounge. Equal Table space will be allotted for both organized and independents. This table space will be in the lobby outside the entrance to the Men's Lounge. An election headquarters room will be provided for each party on the third floor. No other non-political rooms in the Union may be used that day for election purposes. This includes the Y.M.C.A., Student Senate, Crimson Bull, Union Board Room, Union Board office and the Bryan Room.

No loud speakers are permitted within fifty feet of the Union Building. No animal or mascot publicity stunts are permitted in the Union. Voting Precedure: Voters will enter the Men's Lounge through the South Lobby door, name and I.D. cards will be checked. The voting will be done in the Men's Lounge proper and ballots will be deposited in the ballot box placed near the outside door through which the voters will exit.

Motion(Witt) The above rules shall be adopted by this board" The motion was passed. There was no further business and the meeting was adjourned at 8:00P.M.
