The official meeting was called to order by the president and the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The following committees reported.

Social: Coffee hour Friday with the AWS is being planned by the AWS council.

Individual and Club: The model is back in the crafts room.

Special Events: The service award banquet will be April 24.

Team Activities: We can take care of 16 girls on women's billiards. The girls are having a telephonic meet tonight.

Music Activities Council: The annual report of Music committee will be out at the next meeting. We are plugging the opera now.

Mr. Smith announced that Duke Ellington cleared about $30.00. He has received letters of acknowledgement from honorary members elected to the Union Board.

Senior Barbeque: The price may have to go up because of food prices and a definite report will be given next week.

Ken Kress stated that Dr. Lust and he attended the AWS meeting and the resolution adopted by the union was also adopted by the AWS. Next week will be an evaluation meeting for the benefit of this year's board and last year's board.

It was announced that the Union Board Election had been in favor of the Independents with Mike Hreha, Fred Pain, and ~~xxxxx~~ Dick Hensel defeating the organized candidates Bob Sherman, Pete Sullivan, and Chuck Hoemig.

No other business appearing before the board the meeting was adjourned.
