The twenty-first meeting of the 1951-52 Union Board was called to order by the President at 6:50 p.m. at the home of Mr. Smith. Dick Hensel and Mike Hreha were absent. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Mr. Smith reported that there are three possibilities for attractions at a future Union pop concert. These are: Anna Russell, comedienne, who would appear with Ethel Smith if the show were next fall; Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis, who are probably too expensive; and Norman Granz with his "Jazz at the Philharmonic." There is nothing definite on any of these.
