Union Board Meeting No. 18

The meeting was called to order by Jim Pauloski at 7:00 P.M.
The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Jim Pauloski - Since there are important issues to be discussed, the usual business of the Board will not be pursued.
He explained a letter sent to Marc Williams thanking him for his fine plugs for the Union program.

A motion was made by Jerry Wilson that ushers reserve as many seats as Board members need for themselves at the George Lewis show. The motion was seconded and passed.
Bob Long pointed out that Board members should take seats half an hour before the show starts for public relations
