

Lyman Smith asked members for original ideas concerning the Union's activities and plans for future programs. Mrs. Bette Russell also asked for new ideas and Broyles told the Board that they could do better than what they are now doing and asked for a step-up of Union thinking, planning and action.

Leeds Hutchinson announced that the Union is sponsoring a T.V. show.

Judy Turner Elliott asked the Board that in the future when it sponsors shows on Non-social affairs night, it should clear such events with the social affairs committee.

Mrs. Russell told the board that anyone failing to inform the chairman of the necessity of procedures for obtaining supplies will just have to do without them.

Jim Fitzpatrick announced that the Union will sponsor a free dance on January 13, in the Union Building.

Bob Bluemle asked for reconsideration for the worker recognition plan. Fitzpatrick seconded the motion which was then passed after a discussion of the resolution.

Fitzpatrick withdrew the resolution asking that the Senate reconsider the basketball card section.

There was no new business.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:45 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,

Union Board Meeting No. 15

President Phil Broyles called the meeting to order. Ron Rosensweet was absent; Shirley Sermersheim, Erma Clevinger, Jim Fitzpatrick and Bill Chambers had excused absences. The minutes of the last meeting were approved as read.

President Broyles announced that I.U. will be host to the first Big Ten Photography contest to be held this spring. After the showing here, the exhibit will be shown at other schools.

Broyles read a letter from Robert A. Miller requesting permission for the graduate school to use the Men's Lounge and the exhibit cases for a display of rare books, manuscripts and other material to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the school. Jane Vance made the motion that the exhibit be placed in the lounge as requested; Lee Marchant seconded the motion which was then passed.

Broyles requested that the Union's evaluation committee formulate board policy in regard to scheduling future campus events. He asked that the committee report the second meeting following vacation.

Bill Chambers quoted from memory the resolution urging the I.U. Board of Trustees to take steps for the expansion of the present Union Building. There was no objection to the motion.

Lyman Smith gave the treasurer's report.

Bob Bluemle announced that all hours from this semester will be due the second meeting of the year.

Gene Cramer moved the adoption of the report requesting that a member of the faculty or administration sit in on the meetings: there would be a different one each time.

There was no old business.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:05 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,
