

Jim Fitzpatrick reported on the United Nations Regional Conference to be held here in November. Jerry Montgomery moved that we back the conference; Dan Geist seconded the motion and it was passed unanimously.

Twenty applications have been received for the Bachelor of the Year Contest, Jim Fitzpatrick announced. There was a discussion on having a band and free dance at the Fall Carnival. It was tentatively decided to have the dance from 10:30 or 10:45 until 12:00 P.M. upstairs in the fieldhouse. Stan Dickson announced the judges for the booths.

Stan Dickson was placed on the steering committee on the Regional Conference of College Unions, December 10 and 11, it was announced.

Jerry Montgomery reported that the housing units will be asked to make a sign for the pep rallies. Six cheerleaders have been selected, he said.

The Hosteling Club would like to be sponsored by the Union, Dale Miller said. He passed out material on the club.

Ten Pincus announced that a committee has been set up to take cross-section poles for campus affairs. Ted requested board members to turn in the lists of people that have worked on projects so they can be congratulated. He asked that news stories be sent through a box in Bette's office.

Diann reported that 379 couples attended the First Fling.

Mrs. Bette Mahigan asked that board members turn in budget requests immediately.

Jean Thiery was elected as the student member of the selection board to select the final board member Thursday, October 7.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:05 P.M.

Norm Schnell announced the Regional Conference of Indiana Unions at Ball State December 10th and 11th. He suggested that we have hash sessions within the board after every big campus event and list improvements for next year. The Fall Carnival will be the first event that this will be done with. Norm also suggested that we have Junior Board meetings of the chairmen under major division heads. These chairmen, he continued, should present their plans directly to the board rather than through the division heads. A board meeting in the ABCD Rooms and open to the public was tentatively set for October 26.

Dan Geist gave some more improvements learned at the Big 10 Conference. Dances could be
