

scheduled every week and cancelled as other big dances are scheduled at the same time. A special bulletin board or brochure could be set up to clarify rumors. Certain hours could be established in the office for the publicity director so that all publicity could be brought into him and stamped. He also suggested that a scrapbook of all campus events be compiled.

Jerry Montgomery asked that one night during the month be devoted to informal board meetings starting with a dinner and reports and evaluation given of all the divisions at this time. It was decided to have these banquets the first Wednesday of every month. Jerry also suggested that the chairmen under the division heads turn in regular reports. Jerry announced that the Homecoming queen and her court will ride into the stadium on a float and have a decorated box to sit in at the game. The cheerleaders obtained a 1927 Cadillac to ride into the stadium, he said.

Dan Geist announced that a new poster committee has been set up to distribute posters. He suggested that each division have a co-ordinating secretary to work with the office staff.

Ten Pincus told board members that the issuing date for "This Is Your Union" will be January 7. A safety campaign will be started November 1, he said.

Jean Thiery said that information on Indiana University had been sent to Michigan to go on display in their Union preceding the Indiana-Michigan game.

Stan Dickson said that a new radio program sponsored by the Union will start in about two weeks.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:05 P.M.

The president, Norm Schnell, call the meeting to order. Ted Pincus, Diann Brickley, Dan Geist, and Anne Marshall were absent. The minutes were read and approved.

Norm introduced Barb Ginsberg who represented LUNA (Little United Nations Assembly). She spoke in conjunction with a conference of approximately 350 people from surrounding schools to be held here March 4, 5 and 6. She requested the Union to underwrite the LUNA conference for $200.00

Norm introduced Kenneth Tuxhorn of the Hosteling Club. He listed what the club would like and asked the Union to sponsor it. He said the equipment they needed is a fleet of five to ten lightweight bicycles, ten to twelve ruck sacks, a bicycle trailer, and canoes. The Union would pay for this equipment or part of it, and no major expenses would be incurred by the club after this.

Lyman Smith presented the budget requests. Mr. Smith moved that a budget of $11, 310 be accepted for the board. Norm Schnell seconded the motion and it was passed.

Norm pointed out that much of the money will come back in profits and the actual cost will be $5000 or $6000.

It was moved and accepted that we underwrite LUNA for $200.

Jerry Montgomery moved that we adopt the Hosteling Club in our committee structure and set up their budget as $500.

Stan Dickson reported that the new Union-sponsored radio program is being set up for Monday from 8:30 P.M. to 8:55 P.M. It will be called "Ed Franz's Slaughter House" and will stress each division of the Union until they all have been featured and then it will take up special events.

Jean Thiery announced that the plaques for the Commons should be up by Father's Day.

The hash session meeting was changed to a Wednesday night that would be decided by Norm and Mr. Smith.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:00 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,

Marjorie Boyd
Secretary
