

Norm announced that the open Board Meeting would be next week.

Jim Fitzpatrick brought up the question of how the big bands were selected for dances. Mr. Smith said that the requests and dates are sent to the agencies. Then the possible bands for that date are listed and the dance committee selects the band.

Dianne Brickley reported on Christmas Eve on Campus. She said that President Wells will play Santa Claus and will present the money made at the Fall Carnival to Bob Bluemle. A combo will play in the Commons as part of the event.

Dale Miller announced that the chess team lost and the soccer team won at Purdue 6 to 0.

Ted Pincus said that blanks for publicity are in Carol Creed's office. He also said that the Sampling Committee is taking a poll on student spirit.

Dan Geist announced that the evaluation forms are ready. Two forms are to be filled out; one for the selection committee and one to be kept in Carol's office. He also reminded Board members that a Leadership Training meeting will be held at 1:30 P.M. Sunday in the B and E Building. Dean Shaffer and Carol Creed will speak.

Jerry Montgomery reported that the cheering block for the basketball games has been changed to the East end and will be set up very soon. Jim Fitzpatrick suggested that we try to have a special program for the games that will be televised. Jerry said that a paper mache bull is now being prepared. He also said that the student spirit committee will not try to devote it's time to creating good relations with the schools we play.

Jean Thiery reported that displays of basketball teams we play has started in the entrance to the Commons. She also said that her committee is making progress on obtaining plaques of fraternity and sorority crests to decorate the commons.

Dean Shaffer suggested that we devote an evening sometime to the problems of our sections rather than the successes.

Carol Creed announced that the Faculty Follies will be February 17. Letters and questionnaires are being sent to the faculty members now. She also announced that a jazz session will be December 12, from 3 to 5 P.M. in the Men's Lounge.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:15 P.M.

It was announced that Anne Marshall will be in charge of the Mardi Gras.

Dan Geist told board members the results of the first Chairmen's Council meeting. Suggestions were given on the Bachelor of the Year, turn out for the pep rallies, Social Forum, attendance at the coffee hours, improving the cultural division, and improving the office files. The chairmen also discussed interest in the Union at the beginning of the year, and requested that all chairmanship openings be publicized.

Ted Pincus announced that the Brochure would be out next September.

Jerry Montgomery asked that the cheerleaders be given awards.

Acts between halves of the basketball games were discussed. Anne Marshall was put in charge of entertainment between halves of the Ohio State game which will be televised nationally.

Dan suggested that we have another long hash session soon.

Norm said that he is going to give a State of the Union address to parallel President Bluemle's State of the Campus address.

It was suggested that the Mardi Gras (March 12th) to turnabout and costume. It was passed.

The meeting was adjourned.
