

Lyman Smith gave the financial report. He said the Union received $112.53 net profit from the Four Aces, $167.00 loss on the Summer Prom, $134.77 profit on the First Fling, $77.30 loss on an October 2nd dance, $8.67 profit on the Autumn Interlude, $689.13 profit on the Opening of Formal Season. The net loss for Union Activities is $117.00 and the profit is $587.00 for the year.

Dale Miller announced the winners of the Billiards Tournament.

Stan Dickson announced that the last free jazz concert will be by Wayne Luby. He also said that tickets for the Dave Brubeck Concert will cost $1.75 to $1.25 and the admission for the Faculty Follies will be 75¢ to 50¢.

It was announced that Anne Marshall will be in charge of the Mardi Gras.

Dan Geist told board members the results of the first Chairmen's Council meeting. Suggestions were given on the Bachelor of the Year, turn out for the pep rallies, Social Forum, attendance at the coffee hours, improving the cultural division, and improving the office files. The chairmen also discussed interest in the Union at the beginning of the year, and requested that all chairmanship openings be publicized.

Ted Pincus announced that the Brochure would be out next September.

Jerry Montgomery asked that the cheerleaders be given awards.

Acts between halves of the basketball games were discussed. Anne Marshall was put in charge of entertainment between halves of the Ohio State game which will be televised nationally.

Dan suggested that we have another long hash session soon.

Norm said that he is going to give a State of the Union address to parallel President Blue Nile's State of the Campus address.

It was suggested that the Mardi Gras (March 12th) to turnabout and costume. It was passed.

The meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Marjorie Boyd
Secretary

December 14, 1954

Union Board Meeting No. 14

President Norman Schnell called the meeting to order at 7:30 P.M. This was the first open Board meeting and 31 attended.

President Schnell thanked everyone for coming and also thanked the board members for attending the regional conference at Ball State, December 10 and 11. Norm also requested that the Board members write reports of the meetings they attended at Ball State and turn them in at the January 4th Board meeting. Anne Marshall reported that 336 people attended the Madrigal Dinner. She also reported that her committee sent out invitations for the open Board meeting.

Stan Dickson reported that there was no jazz session December 12 because Wayne Luby's band was unable to play. The next jazz session will be the Sunday following vacation. He said that between 150-175 people have been attending each session. He reported that Jim Platt had 615 names in the talent file and that anyone is welcome to use it. Bob Sicks is working on the TV show.

Dick Cardwell reported that they were having fine attendance at the coffee hours. The second one was with the Economics Department and the third was with the English Department. Over 100 people attended. The fourth coffee hour was scheduled to be at the beginning of the second semester. Dick Cardwell explained the Faculty Follies to the people attending the Board meeting.

Ted Pincus reported that the 1955 Union Brochure was almost completed and that the safety campaign was receiving publicity. Ted also reported that the publicity box had not been used very much.

Jerry Montgomery reported that the Cheerleader's Conference would be in the colored supplement of January 2's Indianapolis Star. He said the Crimson Bull promotion was being worked on and would come out right after Christmas. Jerry reported on the card section. The Student Senate has placed it in the East end of the fieldhouse and they were having trouble filling it.

Dan Geist reported that the Union Board office was getting a face lifting. He reported that the Junior Board would probably meet right after vacation. The Leadership school was discussed and Dan said around 40 people attended it. The Congratulatory Committee was sending cards to the Junior Board members. It was suggested that the school be held at the beginning of the year. President Schnell requested a formal report with recommendations by Dan Geist.

Jean Thiery reported that the Art Department wasn't interested in putting up an exhibit in the Union Building. Information on the plaques in the Commons will be in the Daily Student Office. Jean urged support of the Auditorium Series lectures.

Dale Miller introduced Marty Heindel who reported on the Women's Activities division. Dale recommended the establishment of a table tennis club.

Don Finney reported on the Opening of Formal Season. There were 646 paid couples (700 couples including guests). The decorating committee was thanked.

Lyman Smith reported that bids will be opened December 22 on the addition to the Union.

George Held thanked the Union Board on behalf of the Arbutus for their help on their queen contest. He suggested a better system of publicity.

Norm Schnell explained the board set-up, selections, etc., to the people attending Board meetings.

The meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Dale Miller
Secretary Pro-tem