Union Board Meeting No. 15

The president called the meeting to order at 7:10 P.M. No one was absent. The minutes were read and approved.

Lyman Smith gave the treasurer's report.

Mr. Smith urged Board members to get their monthly reports and hours in.

Norm Schnell suggested to Stan Dickson that the Union receive more publicity over the Union-sponsored radio shows.

Jim Fitzpatrick suggested that Christmas Cards be sent by the Union next year. Ted Pincus said that he would check the possibility.

Dale Miller brought up the question of the table tennis club. The Student Building was considered as a place to play, and Dale said that he would look into it.

Stan Dickson announced that Dave Brubeck will definitely play on campus March 2.

Jim Fitzpatrick asked that the Men's Lounge be kept open an hour or two later during final week. Mr. Smith said that it would be open longer. Norm also asked if some of the other rooms could be made available for mixed groups to study in during final week. Mr. Smith said that this could be done in some of the rooms not already reserved.

Ted Pincus said that he had received several complaints on the staff in the Commons. He said the main complaints were that the Commons was short of help and that the staff had a poor attitude. Ted also gave a report on the publicity of the Faculty Follies. Besides the usual publicity he said that the Fall Carnival billboard is being revamped to serve for the Faculty Follies. As further publicity, he said that they are going to try to have a few excerpts from the show at a basketball game or some other popular place.

Jerry Montgomery announced that plans for the card section for the basketball games have been dropped. He said that there will be two basketball pep rallies; one February 18 and the other March 4. Jim Fitzpatrick suggested that the cheerleaders try to hold down poor sportsmanship a little more.

Jean Thiery said that plan are being made for a student art exhibit.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:30 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,

Marjorie Boyd
Secretary

Union Board Meeting No. 16

The president Norm Schnell called the meeting to order at 6:30 P.M. Lyman Smith was absent. The minutes were not read.

Norm Schnell suggested that we have a long meeting soon. It was decided to have the meeting at Ann Marshall's house Tuesday, February 15th. The board will work on the Constitution at that meeting.

Ted Pincus reported that the Union is sending out valentines. He requested that board members turn in names of people to whom they wished these cards sent. Ted also said that the "Faculty Follies" and the Brubeck Concert have been publicized the last four weeks and that posters on the "Faculty Follies" were being put up immediately.

Stan Dickson said that the disc jockeys were going to meet in order to plan an organized promotion campaign for the Union. He also said that faculty members were being sent letters to read in their classes publicizing the "Faculty Follies".

Anne Marshall announced that the Sauter-Finnegan Band will play for the Mardi Gras March 11th.

Dan Geist told board members that the Chairman's Council is going to start meeting every week rather than bi-monthly. A question was raised of discontinuing the Union membership cards given out at enrollment. Dan said he would look into the cost of these cards.

Jerry Montgomery suggested that the membership cards were more of a publicity move. He also said that we was working on making the Crimson Bull an official mascot of the University.

Jean Thiery reported on the plaques. She said they would cost between $10.00 and $15.00, and the individual housing units will pay for their own crests. They will be hung in the Commons and transferred to the new building when it is completed.

Dick Cardwell announced that there will be four more Coffee Hours this semester.

Ted Pincus announced that Sue Ledden is the new editor of the Union Press. She will call board members for information soon, and Ted urged that we give her a great deal of information.

Carol Creeed introduced Professor Ross who gave a report on the "Faculty Follies".

The meeting was adjourned at 7:55 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,

Marjorie Boyd

Union Board Meeting No. 17

The president Norm Schnell called the meeting to order at 7:15 P.M. Jim Fitzpatrick was absent. The minutes were read and corrected.

Norm announced that the meeting and dinner at Anne Marshall's house will be next Tuesday, February 22.

Norm urged board members to continue introducing their chairmen and having them talk at board meetings. Norm also raised the question of hours earned by athletic ushers in relation to service awards. Since the maximum number of hours that can be earned in the activity is six hours less than the required fifty, it was felt
