Board Meeting #11

The meeting was called to order at 6:40 p.m. by President, Neil Hinchman. The minutes were read by Jim Platt.

Jim Capehart was put in charge of compiling a brochure which will be passed on to future board members.

Division Reports

Jim Capehart--The student-faculty teas are being planned. Christmas Eve on Campus is underway and decoration ideas are needed. There will be a coffee hour this Saturday after the Marquette game. It was decided that coffee hour needs more publicity. Snow festivities were suggested for future action.

Dick Lehman--A travel interest club should be added to the ^{Rovers} ~~Boys~~ Club. He also stated that a score board is to be designed and painted. He then asked if there is a new motto for Campus Quiz Bowl, the old one being "Hoosier School Master." His committee has thought up the symbol of a light bulb.

Carol Creed--She suggested that classical artists programs of movies on great stars be given; however, these movies must be shown in the Auditorium. Sandy will investigate this issue and further discussion will be held later. Carol also told us that November 30 is the Regional Conference.

Bob Neuman--The Big Ten Cheerleaders Conference is December 1. Movies of the Nebraska game will be shown next Rec. night. Bob also suggested that a dinner or some other function be scheduled with the personnel of the union.

Bob Shula--O.T.H. dance will be this Wednesday evening. Bob also announced that Marty Flynn is general chairman of Open of Formal Season. Plans for the Fifth Quarter Fling well in hand.

Barry Bergsman--We should have national publicity for some of the main campus events. Barry also stated that there would be a slogan contest for Thanksgiving vacation. Also, costumes are being selected for the High Steppers.

Yvonne Belcher--There will be tours for this weekend. December 5 is the Style Show. Marriage Clinic will be next semester. Charlie Peterson, billiard expert, will be here November 8-10.

Ann Blackburn--At present there isn't any Travel Bureau.

Carol Creed--We will ^{try to} sponsor a pop concert with Rodger Williams.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 8:10 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Neil R. Hinchman
