Board Meeting #12

The meeting was called to order at 6:35 p.m. by the president, Neil Hinchman. The minutes were read and approved. Dean Shaffer and Mr. Jordan were absent from the meeting.

Jim Capehart explained the festivities for Christmas Eve on Campus. Neil suggested that there be more publicity given to this event in order to bring the whole campus in to celebrate.

It was announced that the management faculty tea will be in room D of the Union Wednesday, November 7, at 4:00.

Sandy Sallach stated that the Cosmopolitan Club is being asked to display some of their themes for Christmas.

Dick Lehman is working on the photographers club and contest. Also, under his division, Community Leadership School will be starting the first of February, service groups are going out to Bean Blossom to clean it up, and the quiz bowl motto will be "The Light Bulb." It was also suggested that a dance or some activity be planned for the married students. There will also be an activity display.

Barry Bergsman said that safety posters are being printed.

Bob Shula brought up that we lost approximately $250 on the Fifth Quarter Fling. Therefore, we are going to cut out some of the smaller all-campus dances. Opening of Formal Season decorations will be in the form of a boulevard effect.

Carolyn Zanin said that a letter will be sent to the housing units, thanking them for their participation in the Fall Carnival.

Bob Neuman stated that there were over 700 entries in the Football Score Contest last week. In order to begin our better relations with the employees, next Tuesday at 4:15 Mr. Jordan will conduct us through the building, we will have dinner in the Commons, and Board meeting will follow the dinner.

Yvonne Belcher said that the style show was coming along fine. Also, she is meeting with Dr. Beck to see what the Union can do to help in religious events.

Ann Blackburn brought up that the Ride Bureau is legal and is now in effect. Also, there will be a personnel party early next semester.

Carol Creed stated there is a possibility of getting Dave Brubeck on April 5. There being no further business the meeting was adjourned at 7:55.

Respectfully submitted,

Neil R. Hinchman
