

The meeting was called to order at 6:40 p.m. by the president, Neil Hinchman.

Neil announced that there would be several interruptions during the meeting this evening. At 7:00 a man from WTTV is coming to take a film of the Union Board singing Christmas Carols around the Union tree--this film to be shown on Christmas morning. Also, the photographer from the Arbutus staff will be here at 7:45 to get shots for this year's Arbutus.

DIVISION REPORTS

- Jim Capehart -- Christmas Eve on Campus will be this Friday evening. He also said that a student from the University of Illinois mentioned to him that it would be a good idea if all Unions would send full reports of their activities to the other Union Boards.
- Sandy Sallach -- The Culture Division has thought of the idea of having a Fine Arts Festival sometime between Mardi Gras and the Military Ball. Also it is to be announced that the Mass Meeting of the Culture Division will be held Thursday, December 13, at 3:30 in Room 306.
- Nancy Blaisdell-- Hours are being turned in and counted up. The Personnel Division is going to have a party in the near future.
- Bob Schula -- The Division is now beginning work on the Mardi Gras. Applications are coming in now for the steering committee of this event. Also, there will be a talent show and dancing in the Commons Wednesday evening.
- Barry Bergsman -- The Publicity division is working on getting state newspapers, corporation papers, and scholastic magazines to publicize the Quiz Bowl. Radio coordinator has put out a new form for publicity releases.
- Yvonne Belcher-- The style show was quite a success--attendance being around 200. She also received a request from Aldens to sponsor a style show in the future.
- Bob Neuman-- The Union Voice will be out Friday.
- Dick Lehman-- January 9 will be the introductory session to the Quiz Bowl. It will advertise quiz bowl and acquaint prospective contestants with it. Division thinking about a Talent Development Society to work in conjunction with Union Committees to promote talent encouragement.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:00 p.m.
