Union Board Meeting #14

The meeting was called to order by the president, Bob Shula. The Minutes were read and approved. Bob introduced to the Board, Liz Caldwell who is the new Daily Student Reporter.

JIM - On November 19, at the Harris Grand Theater, is playing "The Ten Commandments." The manager wanted to sell tickets in the Union lobby at a student discount rate. This was voted and approved by the Board.

Jim ordered arm bands for the usher corp and tour guides. One hundred-fifty are needed and they cost 20¢ each. The motion was voted and approved.

Financial Report; Erroll Garner Pop Concert: 1548 tickets were sold, which indicates that approximately $300.00 was cleared. Ted Heath Show; gate was about $5500; expenses were about $5700; therefore, there was a $200 loss. There was a critical discussion held on pop concerts.

The tickets for the Purdue Glee Club will be all one price and there will not be reserved seats.

A straw vote was taken concerning Pop Concerts in general. The Board decided to have reserved seats and mixed prices.
