Union Board Meeting #21

The meeting was called to order and the minutes stood approved as corrected. The new reporter who is replacing Liz Koffman was introduced. The grade average of the Union Board was computed as 2.4.

Ed Friend spoke to the Board about the lack of copy being turned in for Union Sponsored events. He urged each member of the Board to inform his division about the Union sponsored show and explain how to fill out the copy sheets.

BARRY - Barry passed out mimeographed copies of the policy concerning the use of Recreational Facilities. A discussion was held and several revisions were suggested. A motion was made that the policy be tabled and brought up again next week revised.

MIKE - Mike reminded the Board members to be thinking of candidates for the Outstanding Senior Award and the Life Membership awards. Nominations and elections will be held next week.

Mike suggested as changes in the Proposed Policy for increasing The Number of Students in Planning Union Events: the merit system to be changed to 40 points for general Chairman, 30 points for Advisory Council and 20 points for a chairmanship. A discussion was held. It was moved to accept policy as amended. Also a change from 95 to 100 points as a limit for each person was made into a motion and passed.

NANCY - Nancy Mettendick passed around a new cover for the I. U. brochure which met with the Board's approval.

DAVE - He announced that there was now in the Whittenberger Lounge an excellent photo exhibit.

He is working on:

1. Photo Club
2. Pen Pal Type thing where students write this semester and then hold a party next fall where they can meet them.
3. Toastmaster's Club
4. Classical Music one night a week in the commons.

on the Mardi Gras Festival
MARTY - Publicity will break this Friday. The date of the dance has been changed to February 21st. Completely unique this year with not only three groups, the Norm Care Orchestra, Al Cobine, and Dave Boker; but also a Casino and Whittenberger Lounge as Antonies. Also the ABCD rooms will be used for refreshments. Ticket sale will be limited and will be held between February 10 and 15. Fake money is being printed and handed out as part of publicity. Costumes are required. It is a boy ask girl affair.

MARY - Announced Big Ten Intercollegiate Bowling Tournament: General Chairman, Jerry Pollock; Housing, Ronald White; Publicity, Jerry Birge;

Registration, Carl Golcart; Banquet, Phil Gay; Scorekeeper, Phillip L. Bond.

The Inter-colligate Bridge Tournament will be held from February 26 through March 3. Students may enter by mail.

The Modeling Clinic will be held the last two weeks of February and the first two weeks of March. A discussion was held concerning a charge of $.50 to attend and approved.

NANCY B. - The Easter Parade on Campus will be Wednesday, March 26th at 8:00 with a dance at 9:00. Steering Committee and the other committees are being set up now.

JANE - There are now 12 members on Junior Union Board. A committee has been set up to work on Beechwood Heights and also one to work with Dave on the International Club. A chairman and a secretary will be elected for the Board.

Quiz Bowl Trial Run was fairly good. The Quiz Bowl will start on Tuesday at 7:00. The brochures are being planned.

SANDY - A new machine has arrived which will press pictures on posters. The publicity committee will meet next week to show each member how to work it. Plans are being formulated for renting out the machine to groups on campus for a small charge.

SANA - She announced that an office staff meeting was held on Tuesday. Committee applications are being opened for a Union ~~Office Staff Party~~ Union.

NANCY M. - Dean Sikes asked her to offer his apologies for not attending the meeting. Plans are being made to compile a list of the faculty so that the houses and dorms can contact them easier and perhaps invite more of them to dinner.

MR. LYONS - Publicity for the Purdue Glee Club will break Monday with posters and advertisements on the Union Show and in newspapers in the surrounding area. Also flyers are being mailed out to a selected list of about 2,200. The date of the performance is February 28th.

There being no further business, the meeting was ajourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Ginny Sly, Secretary

Bob Shula, President
