Union Board Meeting #12

The Union Board meeting was called to order at 4:33 p.m. by President, Mike Moss.

Don Komito was elected president of the Sports Car Club.

The Union radio show's new name is the "Union Varieties." Dave Klemm appointed Judy Barrett as the radio program coordinator.

The I.U. Sailing Club will be unable to attend the meet at Merchant Marine Academy on Long Island, because of the lack of the Sailing Club budget.

The Craft Shop will hold a Christmas card decoration contest for the best design for an official Union Christmas card greeting.

The Junior Union Board discussed ways of the Union contacting the students living in the dorms about the Union events. The suggested ways were:

1. Poster and applications available in dorms
2. Mimeograph sheets of monthly events
3. Personal visits to girls' corridor meetings and dinner hour in men's dorms
4. Contact through House Council

Mary Martin, chairman of the Union's vocal ensemble, needs a two weeks' notice concerning publicity of an Union event.

The Board voted to give the Princess Theatre permission to sell tickets for the Bolshoi Ballet in the Commons' Lobby from October 29th through November 5th.

Mike read Sandy McNear's resignation form Board. A discussion about her replacement was tabled until the next Board meeting.

A discussion was held concerning Bohemian dress and guitar playing in the Commons.

Jim Lyons explained to the Board that the reason of charging two dollars an hour for operating the poster machine is because of the ink, rollar, and type costs.

The Board meeting was adjourned at 5:30 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Dee Benko
