Union Board Meeting #13

The meeting was called to order by the President, Don Johnson, at 3:45 P.M. in the Union Board Room. Jerry Kabelin, was not present. Katie Berry, Gail Cassen, Bev Mead, Mike Dann and Judy Hinds were late.

Don congratulated Katie Berry on her fine planning of the Homecoming Weekend.

Don called our attention to a problem existing in the bowling alleys. He recommended that during peak periods, students of I.U., faculty, and associate members of IMU shall have priority in use of the alleys. Ray Muston made a motion that we accept this policy. It was seconded and passed.

Mike Dann made a motion that Union Board Members pay full price for tickets for the Frangipani Room. It was defeated. Gail Cassen made a motion that we have the same status as the Steering Committee Members. It was seconded and passed. Jim Lyons gave a report on the coming Union Board Reunion. We are expecting 300 guests.

Schedule--Friday

3:00 - 7:00 P.M. Registration in Conference Lounge (receive their name tags and table numbers)

3:00 - 6:00 P.M. Tours of the building. Displays in G9 of pictures, mementos, and letters from past Union Board Members

5:00 - 7:00 P.M. Reception in Frangipani Room

7:00 - 10:00 P.M. Banquet in Alumni Hall - Presentation of President's Plaque

Jim suggested that we wear our blazers.

DIVISION REPORTS

Bev Mead said that the Bloomington Transit Lines will run a round-trip, non-stop ride to Gary for $13.50, which will be publicized this week. Christmas Decorations will go up in the Main Lobby and South Lounge before Opening of Formal. The Music Committee is progressing well under the direction of Larry Adler. The Union Board Office Staff is set up. Bev announced plans for name plates on the desks of Union Board Members. The Office Staff for the Craft Shop will consist of about 15 members to help the Craft Director, Jack Weddle. Bev explained the method for signing out room keys at the Activities Desk. She handed out sheets explaining The House Committee which will coordinate the facilities, services, and functions of the Student Activities Center. We discussed the service of the Tudor Room and guest room facilities. It was suggested that we improve our parking lot for services. Bev and Ray will check the problem to see if there can be a possible solution.

Don recommended that any discussion of a private nature concerning our business be confined to the Union Board Room. It was decided that we will freely discuss any people for positions. It was suggested that we make a greater effort to integrate our areas and cooperate in planning our policies.
