DIVISION REPORTS

Diane Boisson announced that the theme of Christmas Eve on Campus will be "'Twas The Night Before Christmas". There will be intermission acts.

She said that 35 applicants had replied for the Hospitality Corps. They will have a training period at the first of next week.

December 13 will be the first meeting of the Gavel Club where guest speakers will appear. There will be a club manual printed with the purpose of each club. This handbook will be the project for the remainder of the year. There have been weekly meetings of the Club Council.

The Camera Club will be taking pictures of various events for the Union brochure and promotions.

Ray Muston reported that the Chess Program has received recent publicity which has aroused interest in the Club. He told of a promotional start to advertise the shut facilities. An invitation was sent to Illinois for a dual tournament in bowling. The Billiards Tournament ended last Tuesday, but final reports are not complete in Duplicate Bridge. Ray is trying to get Charles Goren as a guest lecturer.

A survey has been taken for suggestions and improvements of Beechwood Heights.

A file has been compiled of information for skiing trips over Christmas vacation which will be available to all interested.

Jim Lyons gave a report on the summer program on the Beechwood Heights Waterfront Area. It was suggested to check the possibility of getting canoes and water skis for the Sailing Club.

Jim Campbell reported on Opening of Formal for Pete Sherman. It will be this Friday evening from 9:00 P.M. until 1:00 A.M. Complimentary tickets are available for the Union Board Members. Tickets for the dinner preceding the dance may be purchased at the Activities Desk for $4 per couple.

Mike Dann reported on the Faculty Relations Council which will be sending newsletters to all faculty members. Applications will be out soon for the Children's Christmas Party.

Kate Berry suggested our showing the films of away football games. She will do more research on this to discover if the interest in such a program would make it worthwhile.

Judy Barrett asked the opinion of the Board Members if we should feature a "Torch Hour" on our Sunday evening Radio Show. Comments were negative.

Judy Hinds asked for an hours record form every Union committee worker.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned until next Monday at 3:30 P.M. in the Union Board Room.
