Union Board Meeting #18

The meeting was called to order by the President, Don Johnson, at 3:42 P.M. Judy Hinds and Mike Dann were late. The minutes were read and approved as read.

OLD BUSINESS

Compliments were paid to Pete Sherman for the Rhythm Room program before vacation. Judy Barrett said that through a recent survey 75% of the students questioned did not know about the program.

DIVISION REPORTS

Tickets for the Pop Concert will be $2.25. The publicity will break about January 13 announcing Chris Connor. The next Steering Committee meeting will be tomorrow. Block sections of tickets will be sold two days before the regular tickets sales begin.

Judy Hinds announced that each Board member must see that his committee workers have turned in their hours before the Recognition Banquet. It will be February 21. Pete Sherman suggested that everyone enter in group discussion after the banquet. It was questioned if our method of recognition results in further motivation of the individual. It was felt that a leadership conference might be helpful if directed carefully. Dr. Lusk mentioned having a Union Workers Honor Roll which would be posted each semester to recognize those who worked a set number of hours. It was suggested that the budget for the banquet be used in some other manner of recognition in the future. A motion was made that we continue the banquet this year. It was seconded and passed. Mike Dann suggested that we have progressive awards as: A certificate for fifty hours, a key for ninety hours, etc.

Mr. Jordan reported on the plans for the National Conference of College Unions which will be held at I.U. this spring, April 24-26.

Bev Mead and Jerry Kabelin have written letters to the Big Ten Unions in preparation for the Conference.

Mike Dann said that the Faculty Reception will be this Thursday from 2:00-5:00 P.M. in the Tudor Room. Displays will be featured in the room.

Judy Barrett said that the Crosstown News flyer is asking for any Union News, which they will publicize.

The policy was established that anyone coming late to the meeting would be fined .50.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 5:05 P.M. until next Monday at 3:30 P.M. in the Union Board Room.

Union Board Meeting #19

The meeting was called to order by the President, Don Johnson, at 3:45 P.M. Gail Cassen, Judy Hinds and Jerry Kabelin were late.

Don announced that planning for the next year's calendar would begin soon. Each Board Member is to compile a list of his events as the time for each and the time of the year it should be. These are to be given to Don before Rush week begins.

Jim Lyons gave a progress report on the remodeling. March 15 is the expected opening date for the Barber Shop.

Don asked for concrete ideas and purposes of the Hospitality Corps. It was said that this group could act as receptionists, leading tours, and for public relations. Many are available now for tours. Diane explained the organization of the Corps which is set up under the direction of an advisory board. It was suggested that these people be used during Festival of Arts, at the Movie Series, in the Frangipani Room, during conferences.

Don reminded us that we will be concerned with the constitutional revision at our next meeting. The referendum vote will be on Tuesday, February 9.

Gail announced that the Steering Committee of Festival of Arts will extend from April 23 to May 1. Judy Elson is now the Film Chairman and Lynn Fitzwater will be the Literature Chairman.

A discussion of the evaluation of Union activities will be the topic for the first meeting of next semester.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 4:30 P.M. until the next meeting.
