

Diane Boisson explained the advancement of H.O.C. They are planning coffee hours with Smithwood, the men's Quad, and a tour of YWCA Cabinet members.

Mike Dann brought up a problem of too many high school students in cafeteria lines. It was found that this was solved between semesters with a change in location of school.

Applications for Union Board open February 23. Pete Sherman requested that letters be sent to all people eligible for Union Board.

Jim Lyons requested that $1 be used for check out of playing cards at the activities desk rather than $.50. It was passed.

Concerning the new house policy regarding up-keep of meeting rooms:

1. Any group using a meeting room is responsible for leaving the room in a clean and orderly condition. A group leaving a disorderly meeting room is liable for a charge for labor required to clean it, at a rate of $2 per man hour with $1 minimum.
2. Meeting room cancellations should be made at least 24 hours in advance of the scheduled meeting time. Failure of cancellation notification may result in a charge equal to the non-student room rate.

It was passed.

Mike Dann brought to the attention of Board the Loyalty Provision of the National Defense Act.

Union Board assignments due next meeting concerning goals, ideals, etc. involving own areas.

Mike Dann proposed that the Union sponsor a Sadie Hawkins Dance to replace the Mardi Gras this spring. Gail suggested that the dance could be included in Festival of Arts. April 22 would offer the students social diversion. Discussion indicated that perhaps there is not a need for more social affairs of the nature on campus.

Gail Cassen gave her report on the Festival of Arts to be held April 22-May 1. Radio and TV will be included as one of the arts this year. There will be particular emphasis on live performances during the week. An art student has offered to design all posters and advertising. Gail asked the opinion of Board Members whether to include a dance in the Frangipani Room during the week. Gail reported on the Flashback Film Series and said that the program had been very successful.

Don Johnson said that Tomahawk had asked if the Union could give them an all-campus project. It was suggested that they could help the I.U. Foundation.

Judy Barrett announced that the Radio Show is revamping its program. Steve Smith, Steve Scott, and Dick Bishop will be in charge of the three main segments of the show. The stress will be on entertainment in the future rather than promotions. Judy asked approval for Bonnie Blakely as Chairman.

Thursday night Arbutus pictures will be taken of these Steering Committees: Fall Carnival, Recreation Council, Forum Council, Hospitality Corps, and Festival of Arts.

One more issue of the UNION VOICE will be out in April.

Union Board Meeting #23

The meeting was called to order by the President, Don Johnson at 5:30 P.M. in the Union Board Room. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

It was suggested that all members of the Board should have an interest in each area, to give the moral support and action to each other member.

Challenge--Do we challenge each other? Question each other on areas? More division of responsibility and more variety was suggested to develop new and different ideas. Service enterprises should be aware of the needs and the changes of those needs. Whether or not these needs might be study or social was discussed.

Four Juniors are to be on a committee for objectives and goals. Ray Muston will serve as chairman.

Next week there will be the selection of holdover members for the Indiana Memorial Union Board. Two seniors will be chosen to sit on Board Selection.

Discussion from Wells Quad on Policies and Procedures on handling Pop Concert and Open Houses.

Starting today at five o'clock there is a new Union Board Secretary, Katharine McEvoy. We are to take this back to committee to explain why such a mix-up might have occurred in the Union Board office.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 7:00 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,

Nancy Mentendiek, Secretary

Don Johnson, President
