

Intercollegiate Table Tennis Tournament - Mr. Lyons told the Board that the campus tournament last Saturday was well handled. A doubles team and two singles players were chosen from this tournament to represent Indiana on March 17 and 18 at the intercollegiate Tournament. In conjunction with the tournament, an Open House will be held on Friday, March 17. Board members will be asked to help with this event.

Halls of Residence - Ann Levenstein told the Board that she has not yet been able to contact Jane Borho, President of IRHA. The relationship between the Halls and the Union was discussed. It was suggested that the Union might sponsor a Leadership Workshop. Ann will report to the Board again when she has talked to Jane Borho.

NEW BUSINESS

Mailing List Procedures - Bill Seng reminded the Board members that Katharine has mailing lists both for dorms and organized housing and these should be used for campus mailings. A new policy has been established whereby campus mail cannot be used for mailings. Bill asked that this information be passed on to committee members.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Union Board Meeting #26

The meeting was called to order by the President, Ray Muston, at 3:45 P.M. in the Union Board Room.

The minutes of the previous week were approved.

OLD BUSINESS

Festival of Arts - A discussion and evaluation of the Festival was lead by Ann Fletchall. It was estimated that about 400 persons attended the Festival per day. A majority of the Board members felt that the program was very worthwhile, and should be continued and expanded. Suggestions were given to Ann for next year's program. These suggestions will be incorporated in a final report on the Festival. The Board commended Ann for her working in making Festival a success.

Club Frangipani - A discussion was held concerning the possibility of having Club Frangipani included in next year's Union Board program. Alternative ways of handling programs for the room were discussed. It was suggested that a pamphlet be printed which would give information on how to rent the Frangipani Room, what bands are available, etc. Another suggestion was that a committee be set up which would handle all of the arrangements for dances; such as bands entertainment, and food. Bob Hanning made a motion that Union Board recommend to next year's Board that Club Frangipani, as it was previously organized be discontinued. The motion was seconded by Babs Freeland. It was voted on and passed.

Recreation Council - Terry Hershberger announced the social dance program will be discontinued this semester because of a lack of participants. There will be a Chess tournament held between a team representing Indiana and one representing Wright College in Ohio. Indiana's team has not yet been chosen. Four students, one girl and three boys, will represent Indiana in the Association of College Unions' Billiards Tournament. The tournament will be held at Kansas State. Indiana's Bowling team will participate in the U.S. Opens which will be held in Chicago over spring vacation.

NEW BUSINESS

Selection of Holdover Members - The following persons were nominated by Bill Seng: Mr. Jordan, Mr. Campbell, Dean Shaffer, President Wells, Mr. Rich, Dr. Lusk, and Mrs. Maurer. The nominations were seconded by Ann Levenstein. These persons were accepted by acclamation. Ann Levenstein, Babs Freeland, Terry Hershberger, Jan Coffey and Norm Traeger withdrew their names from the list of those eligible for next year's Board. Those names remaining on the Ballot were Tom Smallwood, Bob Hanning and Ann Fletchall. Ann Levenstein made a motion that these persons be accepted by acclamation. The motion was seconded by Babs Freeland. It was voted on and passed.

Lounge Programs - Union Board commended Ann Levenstein on the program held last Thursday in the South Lounge.

Recognition for G.E. College Bowl members - It was suggested that Union Board purchase a plaque which would be inscribed with the names of the team members. It was further suggested that the plaque include the names of all past winning housing units. A committee was selected to draw suggestions for a plaque or some other form of recognition. Those selected were Terry Hershberger, Chairman, Jan Coffey and Tom Smallwood.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.
