

NEW BUSINESS

Staff Responsibility - Jim Campbell suggested that certain committees or areas have staff members from the Union to work with them. In this way there would be better communication and understanding between staff members and Union Board. The Board agreed that it was a good idea and Ann Fletchall made a motion that we recommend it to next year's Board. The motion was seconded by Jan Coffey. It was voted on and passed.

Mr. Jordan's report - Mr. Jordan has just returned from a visit to the University of Wisconsin. He explained their procedure for selecting people to Union Board. In the area of student-faculty relations, Wisconsin's Union sponsors a Last Lecture Series and a program called "Dinner With a Professor". Wisconsin has done a great deal in the area of art and Mr. Jordan suggested that we might sponsor some art exhibits, as they do. He also suggested that the North Lounge might serve as a combined lounge and art gallery. Mr. Jordan said Wisconsin's Union puts a lot of stress on where their money comes from and where it goes. This is explained in several booklets they send out. A newsletter is sent out every two weeks telling about the activities currently taking place. In summary, Mr. Jordan said Wisconsin does a good job of working with the faculty and a superb job in the field of art.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.
