Union Board Meeting #5

The meeting was called to order by the President, Bob Hanning at 3:55 P.M.

Committee Reports

Mike Mehr reported on Fall Carnival, relaying to us plans made this year. Publicity and other areas were well underway. New plans, such as a shuttle service to the new Fieldhouse, were announced. Students taking solicitations were to be furnished by the Y, with all money taken by the Union. Mike submitted the name of Randy Tobias for Construction Chairman. The Board approved the choice.

Carol Culbertson was congratulated for a job well done with First Fling. She reported an income of $952 with her expenditures being approximately $353. She said the applications for Rhythm Room would open Monday. Peter Palmer had been secured for Opening of Formal.

Lee Wotherspoon was also congratulated for a successful Activities Night. It was suggested that we discuss the event at our next meeting. He said that he was planning to have the Publicity Committee working soon. The Radio Show would be presented this Sunday. It was suggested and passed that the Daily Student be asked to provide a recap of the day's news.

Union Board members were reminded of their obligation to attend Union functions. They were also reminded to turn in names and addresses of all persons working on their committees.

Cindy Orme said that the handbooks for committee workers were available, and that Katharine was to be contacted for these. She reported on the Invitational Dinner, saying that applications for the Faculty Relations Committee would close Monday. This committee would take care of details for the dinner. Speakers for these dinners are to be Dean Shane, Dr. Tucker, Dr. Kimball, and Dean Weimer. Cindy was to further investigate the need for campus tours.

Steve Moberly announced that Dave Brubeck would be here this Saturday for the Pop Concert.

Bert Kram said that the clubs were equaling last year's membership. A new club, the Judo Club, had been started.

Nancy Baumgartner had received replies concerning the Art Salon. Display cases were to contain a display of Foreign cultures and an art piece of the week. On Oct. 1, a textile exhibit would be on display in the North Lounge. She announced that in the Preview Series, Dr. Richard Moody would discuss The Miracle Worker on Sept. 24, and Dr. Lee Norvelle would discuss The Thurber Carnival on October 4.

An evaluation would be made of the Summer Flashback Series. Fliers were to be sent out concerning Flashback and Children's Matinee Series.

Connie Bender reported that she was working on the World Student Committee. She said that the Office Staff would be in satisfactory operation soon.

Plans were discussed to recognize President Wells. This discussion will be continued later.

Orientation Week: The Board was asked to consider an evaluation of Orientation Week. It was decided to continue this discussion at the next Board meeting.

The meeting was adjourned at 4:58 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,

Union Board Meeting #6

The meeting was called to order by the President Bob Hanning at 3:40 P.M. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Old Business

Evaluation of Activities Night: Lee Wotherspoon reported that it was felt by his committee that Activities Night had been very beneficial to those attending it. More effort should be made to get people up to the offices on third floor and also to disperse the crowds to other areas of the building. It was suggested that perhaps next year, the displays could remain up for a longer period of time.

Recognition Award: It was moved and seconded that Union Board announce a recognition award at the Reunion.

New Business

Regional Union Board Conference: Dates for the conference were announced as the 29th and 30th of October. Board members are to turn in their names if they want to attend this.

Cheerleaders Conference: Cindy Orme reported that as yet no professional cheerleader has been obtained, but that her committee would continue trying.

Faculty Relations Committee: Cindy Orme said that she would be interviewing for this committee next week.
