

Publicity Committee: Lee Wotherspoon wished the Board to approve the following committee:

Jean HopkinsDesign
 Kay SimmersJournalism
 Bonnie BlakelyRadio & TV

The committee was approved.

Card Playing in the Commons: Because of trouble with the cashier, it was moved that decks of cards be checked out only at the Activities Desk and in the Bowling Alley. After discussion, the motion passed. Bert Kram suggest that we assert our policy of prohibiting card-playing in the Commons between 11 and 1 o'clock to avoid congestion during the lunch hour.

Union Board Members were asked to turn in the pink evaluation sheets so that we could keep a record of those people signing up for activities.

The new reporter for the Indiana Daily Student is Deedee Johnston.

October 3, 1961
 Union Board Meeting #7

The meeting was called to order by the president, Bob Hanning at 3:40 P.M. The minutes were read and approved.

Old Business

Evaluation of Orientation Week: It was the feeling of the Board that Orientation Week was a good adjustment time for the freshmen, and that the entire week was needed for this. It was suggested that efforts be made to keep upperclassmen from returning to campus during the first days of Orientation Week.

Record player: After much discussion, the Board adopted the following policy towards the record player: The record player may be used free for Union sponsored events or by the clubs. It may be rented by other groups for $2.50 per night. It can be reserved from the Secretary in the Union Board Office one week in advance. The group is responsible for picking up and returning the record player. There will be a penalty of $5.00 per day if the record player is not returned the night after the event. The record player may not be removed from the building. The group using the record player is responsible for any damage to the machine.

Wives of married students: After much discussion, it was decided that the wives of married students be given student rates in the Union upon presentation of adequate identification.

New Business

Foreign Students and House Council: Connie Bender asked that the Executive Committee be able to approve these two Steering Committees. It was passed.

Clubs: Bert Kram asked that the Board approve Dr. Patterson as faculty advisor of the Sailing Club. This was approved.

Radio Show: Lee Wotherspoon told of the new plans for the Radio Show. He reminded the Board to use the Radio Show to publicize Union events.

Pop Concerts: Steve Moberly announced that Buddy Hackett would do two performances, one at 7:00 P.M. and one at 9:30 P.M. on October 7.

Faculty Relations Committee: Cindy Orme asked approval of the following committee: General Chairman, Judy Knilians; Secretary, Betsy Castle; Daily Student Wayne Larson; Program, Sand Furtick and Jerry Sparks. The committee was approved. Cindy wished approval of Sherry Sawyer for chairman of the Craft Shop office staff. The Board approved this.

Fall Carnival: Mike Mehr related to us the plans for Fall Carnival. He announced that Mort Sahl and Joanie Sommers would be performing at the Carnival Concert.

Controversial Issues: Mike Mehr suggested that the Union sponsor a debate among students over controversial issues. Steve Moberly was asked to look into this.

Rating Forms: Tom Smallwood explained the new rating forms to the Board. Union Board members were urged to make this rating after receiving and reading the committee reports.

Culture: Nancy Baumgartner wished approval of the following committees:

Preview and Lounge Series - Nancy Good, Publicity

Flashback Film Series - Jim Greenlee, General Chairman; Janet Smith, Secretary-Treasurer; Jerry Rubush, Tickets; Steve Tracy, Arrangements; Tom Barnes, Publicity.

Children's Matinee Series - Steve Pohl, General Chairman; Sue Coplen, Secretary-Treasurer; Marlene Duman, Tickets; Deedie Baumgartner, Arrangements, Sue Harrison, Publicity.

The committees were approved.

Union Board Conference: Region VI Union Board Conference will be held on October 29 and 30 at Ball State University. Nine Union Board members said that they could attend the conference.

TV: Jim Lyons said that there would be four television sets in Alumni Hall set up to watch the World Series. The Union was also investigating a machine to project TV programs onto a large screen.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 5:25 P.M.
