

union board

board of directors
indiana memorial union room 26
indiana university
bloomington, indiana 47405
(812) 337-4682

Dec. 8, 1981

The meeting was called to order at 5:35 P.M. by President John Talley. Kent Owen was late. Non-voting members present were Don Luse and Ann Claussen. The Board did Secret Santa and made a tribute to Mr. Blackburn.

APPROVAL OF THE AGENDA: Advertising and Volunteer Jam were added to New Business.

ADDITIONS AND CORRECTIONS TO THE MINUTES: There were none.

UNION BOARD AWARD: John Russert received the award.

STAFF REPORTS: There were none.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT: John Talley attended a meeting about concerts. He may attend a program at Purdue. Attended a breakfast meeting one morning this week.

VICE-PRESIDENT'S REPORT: Julio distributed budget reviews to all directors. The purpose of these is to see where the budget stands at this point. These forms are due at the first meeting in January.

SECRETARY'S REPORT: Vera had no report.

COMMITTEE PERSON/DIRECTOR AND STAFF RECOGNITION: Secretary: Everybody; Vice-president: John Talley, Vera Riemeris; Public Relations: Mike McEwen, Steve Miller, Laura Hull, Secret Santa; Nostalgia and Trends: Sara Morse, Cindy King @ The Limited, Bruce Taber @ Dress King, Kathy Marshall @ Top Hat Tuxedo Rental, Nancy @ Casual Corner, Tom @ Hotline Shoe Store, Pete Weaver @ NYNY Hair Designs, Ann Claussen, Lolita Zwettler, Debbie Helen, Gene Marshall and Crew, Charlie Bennet, John Pearson, Tony O'Connor, Joe Vittorie, Tamara Hamilton, Pegeen McMahon, Amy Sobel, Linda Floyd, Laura Brown, Candy Smith, Dave Allison, Mike Deckert, Chris Holobek, Jim Shelton, Donna Talifero, Diane Vogel; Kiva: Tony O'Connor, Ann Wertz, Pat Raute, Carol Griffin, Dave Francis, Chris Holobek, Sue McIntis, Joan Thompson; The Arts: Joel Jacobus, Mark Kellum.

COMMITTEE REPORTS: It was agreed to have an abbreviated session of committee reports.

Minority Concerns: Vera Riemeris had no report.

Public Relations: Julie Mittman reported the the Student Organizations Forum letters of invitation went out last Friday. It will be Jan. 16 at 9:00 in the Frangipani Room. Cost is $6.00 per person, which includes breakfast, a speaker, 2 workshops, membership, fund raising, a case study, lunch and a panel discussion. The IDS clipping scrapbooks should be up to date after break, and the program file begun. The Dec/Jan calenders will be in tomorrow.

Crazy Feet: No committee report submitted.

Travel and Excursions: Volunteer Jam signups are coming along fine. Response to the Bahamas Trip has been good so far. At a recent meeting, 25 people attended and showed interest.

Nostalgia and Trends: The Holiday Fashion Show went pretty well. An estimated attendance for both shows was 300. Response was overwhelming and the merchants suggested doing another show.

Alva: Beth Loeb reported that Best of Kiva went very smoothly. Attendance was 222, and concessions did very well. The program went well, but not as well as hoped for. Auditions are set for January 13 and 14. Average attendance for the semester was 101. No stools were purchased last week.

Lectures: There was no committee report submitted.

Concerts: The deadline for the T-shirt contest was extended through Friday (12/11) at 5:00 in the office. Tomorrow, UB will purchase 25 tickets for the Rolling Stones to be sold through a lottery. People are to turn in their name, address, and phone number into a box in the Commons, UB office, or WBWB. The lottery will be held in the Commons on Thurs at 4:15. The committee is working on getting a show for a Landon Turner Benefit. Anyone who could help in getting alumni or friends to get personal contact with agents is urged to get in touch with Mike.

Advertising: Al Finley and his committee has been brainstorming for ideas for Elections/Selections and have settled on a campaign centered around photos of the office. After break, Al hopes that he will have the Advertising Office restocked. He also passed around a new stationary idea. As a side line, Al reminded us of how many days were left until The Harder They Come.

Films: No report submitted

Earning At Leisure: Diane Vogel reported that her committee meeting involved working on class descriptions to be used in a brochure. She is also looking for places for all the classes.

Festivals and Fairs: Guthrie Carr reported that he is busy working on a program review. He will assume John Russert's responsibilities for College Bowl in January after John has left.

The Arts: No report submitted.

Special Projects: No report submitted.

Alumni: Kent Owen had no report, but I am sure he amused us.

Faculty: Phil Chamberlain had no report.

EMU: Mr. Blackburn left with a few parting words.

Administration: Sara McNabb spoke about the status of the telephone change-over taking place over vacation.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE REPORTS: Budget and Policy: They approved offers to Chick Correa and Al Jarreau. Also passed Volunteer Jam and logos for Advertising. Internal: Chris Holdek will assume the chair for the committee. Futures: David Sherry spoke about Elections/Selections, and said that everything looks good. Elections/Selections: The packets are set up and ready to be picked up in the office.

OLD BUSINESS: Vera and John's duties were split up.

NEW BUSINESS: Advertising: The Board approved an additional $500 for logos. Travels and Excursions: The Board approved $916 to be taken from the Program Contingency Fund.

ADJOURNMENT: Early

Respectfully submitted,

Chris Holobek

Chris Holobek

ADDITIONAL AND CORRECTIONS TO THE MINUTES: There were none.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS: There was none.

REPORTS: Ann Claassen said to be patient with the new phone system. She said that Directors and committee members were not to abuse the phone room. Laura Hall is seeking assistance from Directors to return their handbooks this week. Don Long reported that the Campus Center for Arts Center should be considered when planning for small programs. It is ideal. Carol Griffin likes the weather, as it reminds her of home.

REPORTS: John Talley reported that at a recent breakfast meeting, the Student Recreational Sports Center was discussed. He would like to have the views of individual directors by Jan. 28 regarding the Center. INSA is setting up a phone bank in the Big 10 Room during the last week of Jan. for members to call their State Legislators regarding higher education. The report policy is presently being circulated in its final draft form. It is a historic measure. This will last one to one-and-one-half years.

REPORTS: Julie Adams reported that the Committee for the Reception Reception will be Monday, February 1 at 7 pm in the Federal Room. He needs a list of committee members to send invitations to by this Friday. Also report reviews are due by this Friday.

REPORTS: Chris Holobek reported that the January Newsletter will be released with the February Newsletter. He needs all information to include in this by Thursday.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS/DIRECTOR AND STAFF REUNION: Vice-Presidents: Ann Claassen, John Talley, Chris Holobek; Files: Laura Hall, Dave Shaver, Bill French, Anne Ward, Gary Jacobson; Public Relations: Laura Hall, Brenda Jovan, Steve Miller, Jan Tallers, Beth Losh, and everyone who helped with Joe-Lynn during finals week; Advertising: Al Finley; Travel and Entertainment: Paul Leeper, Laura Hall, Jeff Bryan, Mike Bechert; Live Photography: Wendy Baumel.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Early Business: There was no report.

Early News: Dave Varter reported that he is looking for seats for February. He also reminded the Board of this weekend is a Crazy Feet with the Late Show.