

January 20, 1948

The meeting was called to order at 7:30 P.M. by Pres. Lambert, after pictures for the Arbutus had been taken.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Committee Reports:

Pep Sessions: Toy announced that the Cheerleader's Conference was a success and that it had received coverage by several magazines.

Record Hour: While the classical record hour will be held as usual, there will be no jazz record hour next week.

Personnel: Personnel reports for the entire month of January may be dated ahead to the 23rd and turned in if no further hours will be given the rest of the month.

Bowling: Indiana's bowling team defeated Purdue, after which the visitors were dined and entertained.

Bridge: All entries for next semester's bridge tournament should be turned in before the end of the semester, though entries may pay at a later date.

Old Business:

Mr. Smith reported that the pictures will be ready soon. He announced further that in connection with the dance passes for Board members, Dr. Lusk has arranged the wording for the contracts and it has been sent to Mr. Franklin for approval.

He also brought up the policy of closing office rooms on the third floor at 11 P.M. It was agreed that anyone turning a key in after 11 should sign a slip.

The secretary read a letter from the Board of Aeons in which was enclosed a bill for $1.75 for a Quarterback Hour held on Dec. 15. The bill had been erroneously been sent to them. Mr. Smith took the bill and is to arrange for its settlement.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Approved:

Richard H. Lambert
Richard H. Lambert, Pres.

Submitted:

Harry L. Wallace
Harry L. Wallace, Sec.

February 17, 1948

The meeting was called to order at 7 P.M. by Vice-president Graves.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Quear, Husband and Lambert put in their appearance late.

Committee Reports:

Social: Bowers reported a $76 loss on the Union-A.W.S. dance last Friday.

Billiards: Hinds announced that a billiard tournament is in progress now, and that he is trying to arrange for an expert to give an exhibition.

Bridge: A new tournament gets under way Thursday. Hawley also stated that the Intercollegiate Bridge Tournament is to be held under the supervision of Paul Thompson, a Bloomington resident. The winners of last semester's tournament are to participate.

Personnel: The next report is to cover the entire month of February. All service workers must fill out new cards for this semester.

Old Business:

Mr. Smith reported that he had received a letter from Mr. Franklin approving our first five recommendations on room space with the exception