Now I'm here, Though it's gay,
Now I'm there, I must say, ——— You're apt to find me I don't care to an - y where, live this way,

It's so lone some where I'm liv - ing
All my life I've just kept go - ing,

No one there to talk to me, But it's strange, how I've had noth - ing else to do, But you'd see a things could change how dif - 'rent I would be.

dif - 'rent me and you'd be dif - 'rent too.

CHORUS

If I had some one like you at home I would - n't

wan - na go out I would - n't wan - na go out,

I'd be so hap - py If you were there, You might - n't love me but I don't care If I had some - one like you at home I'd put a pad-lock on ev - 'ry door, — You've got the smile that would sat - is - fy { You've got that what - cha - ma - call - it You've got that what d' - ye mean — in your eye And if I had you, yes I hope to die, I would - n't want to go out — no more. — If I more. —

THE GREATEST BALLAD IN YEARS

By the boys who wrote "YOU MADE ME LOVE YOU"

Here are the words of the chorus and a few strains of the verse, of this wonderful song.

CHORUS:

The chairs in the parlor all miss you; the pictures all frown on the wall,
The flowers won't grow, for they seem to know; and the sunshine won't come in at all.
Our little canary won't sing any more; the folks ask me why you don't call.
Our whole house is blue, they want you, only you; but I miss you most of all.
