Moderato.

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in B-flat major, 2/4 time, marked 'Moderato.' and 'mf'. The introduction consists of two staves of piano accompaniment. The first system of piano accompaniment is followed by a vocal line. The vocal line begins with a rest, then the lyrics 'I am a king bee, I' are written. The piano accompaniment continues with the lyrics 'till ready.' and 'p'. The second system of piano accompaniment is followed by a vocal line. The vocal line begins with the lyrics 'am a col - ored doc - tor I am a king bee, I' and 'once — knew a coon and his name was Hen - ry, They'. The piano accompaniment continues with the lyrics 'p'.

cure all the col-ored folks from sick-ness you see, I called him Hen for short be-cause he laid 'round you see, And have the on-ly rem-e-dy for coons- that are sick, It his full name it was Hen - ry Good Health, He aint no med-i-cine its just a lit-tle trick; Well I had so ma-ny ail-ments he was 'fraid of him-self, Well he once had a coon he was as black as he could be, And said he had the meas-les and he said he had the grip, He

he took sick while work-ing for me, I said he had mal-lar-i-a he said he had the pip, I went to his bed-side and at him I did grin, And gave him some chick-en and some gin— that day, To all I gave that coon was chick-en and gin.

tell the truth this coon got well right a-way.

CHORUS.

If a coon gets sick, give him chicken and gin,

If a coon gets sick. 4.

It's sure to make him fat, And he'll nev-er get thin, Pork chops make them la-zy you see, So please take a lit-tle ad-vice from me, If a coon gets sick give him chicken and gin.

If a coon gets sick. 4.
