

MY DEAR OLD HOOSIER HOME

LYRIC BY
HENRY J. WIETHE
MUSIC BY BOB SHERWOOD

AS SUNG BY

THE ORPHEUM TRIO

1 pg
780.8
She 1

HENRY J. WIETHE - PUBLISHER - 827 FLETCHER AVE. INDIANAPOLIS

MY DEAR OLD HOOSIER HOME

Lyric by HENRY J. WIETHE

Music by BOB SHERWOOD

Andante

mf

p

My fond-est rec-co-lec-tions seem to
I am so ve-ry lone-ly and have rall

p

allegro

take me far a-way, To ear-ly child-hood and those hap-py gone so far a-stray, From home and loved ones who have passed a-

days, _____ By the rip-pling riv-er, and way; _____ Age is creep-ing o'er me, and

Orch. 35¢

Copyright MCMXII by Henry J. Wiethe, Indianapolis, Ind.

All rights reserved

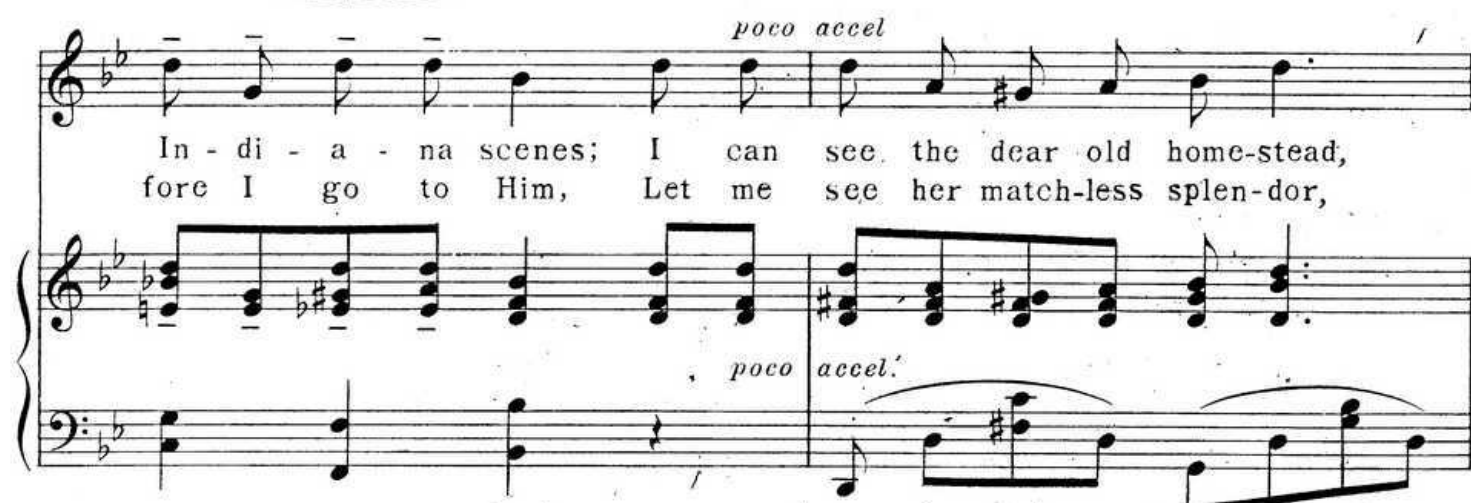

International copyright secured

3

skirt-ing pas-tures green; Down the sun-kissed val-leys, thru gone that youth-ful vim; Show me In-di-a-na be-

poco accel

In-di-a-na scenes; I can see the dear old home-stead, fore I go to Him, Let me see her match-less splen-dor,

poco accel.

a tempo

just be-yond the hill And can hear the mer-ry voi-cés that are,
and those rip-pling streams, There to think and pon-der o-ver dear old

a tempo

now lying still; Some how I hear them calling me and whis'pring ev-ry where, hap-py scenes And there to live as ev-er and con-tent-ed as be-fore,

rit.

Come to In - di - a - na, There's an ev - er wel - come there.
 Back to In - di - a - na, To her ev - er wel - come shore.

rit.

REFRAIN

Valse lente

Take me back to In - di - a - na, To my

p-f

child - hood scenes, ——— 'Midst her hills and val - leys, ——— And by the flow - ing streams, ———

There to be and live for - ev - er,

Nev - er more to roam; Take me back to In - di - a - na, My dear old

Hoos - ier Home. Home.

THE FIGHTING CREW

CHORUS Tempo di Marcia

Sail - ers, Sail - ers, Sail - ers, We are the fighting crew.

At sea we are in a row, Our line of sail is so

Do we die for the crown try you and I

Du - ty, Du - ty, Du - ty, On the ocean deep and blue

Fight the bat - tle thru and thru Lead - ing us to try

From on high For the crown try you and I

If I Should Ever Kiss A Man

CHORUS

"No, you don't! No, you won't!" Said pret-ty Jessie Rhea, "You naugh-ty man! Oh, bor-rid and So sil-ly to ca-ress that way: For

I'm young and scan-dal's tongue Will gos-sip and talk all day.

If I should ev-er kiss a man No, no, no, no! Nay! Nay!"

Copyright MCMXXII by Henry J. Wooten
International copyright secured

OUR TWO LATEST SONG HITS
TRY THESE ON YOUR PIANO, POSTPAID 25 CTS.