OFFICIAL SONG OF THE INDIANAPOLIS INDUSTRIAL EXPOSITION

INDIANAPOLIS MY HOME TOWN

Words by Henry Kent Burton
Music by
Charles Francis Roberts

-FRANKEL-

Dedicated to the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce

INDIANAPOLIS

My Home Town

Words by
HENRY K. BURTON

Music by
CHAS. F. ROBERTS

Copyright MCMXXI by Henry K. Burton.

bout the place where I re - side, It's might-y fine to al so far a - cross the sea, But none of them com be, In such good com-pa - ny. I sing its prais-es far and pare, With this old town so rare. For push and hos - pi - tal - i - wide, And folks, I'm here to tell you this, That Good old In-diaty, Here en - er-gy and pluck a-bide, With spir-it rich in nap o-lis, Is more than wor-thy of its fame.
civ ic pride, And cour-age to reach an - y goal.

71.984/.6.1

Let prog - ress be the word, And let our voice be heard, In So let us ev - er more, Keep march - ing to the fore; With ev - er put - ting forth the Cit - y's name. Im glad to pur - pose firm in ev - 'ry heart and soul.
CHORUS
say most ev - 'ry day, That In - dian - ap' - lis is my home, I like it best, It beats the rest, No mat-ter where you roam. on-ward In-dian-ap-o-lis Right-ward face! Take your place, with renown. And if on me you call, You can have my all, Oh,

1
2
In-dian-ap-o-lis, My home town. I'm glad to town.