The Preacher and the Bear.

Words and Music by JOE ARZONIA.

1. A preach-er went out a hunt-ing 'twas 2. This coon stayed up in that tree I on one Sun-day morn Of course it was a gainst his rethink it was all night, He says, "Oh Lord" if you don't help li-gion but he took his gun a-long, He that bear then you'll see one aw-ful fight, Just shot him - self some ver - y fine quail and one big meas - ly a - bout then the limb let go and the coon came tumb - ling hare And on his way re - turn - ing home he met a down, You should have seen him get his raz - or out be - great big grizz - ly bear; — The bear marched out in the fore he struck the ground, — He hit the ground cut - ting mid - dle of the road and he waltzed to the coon you see, The right and left, 'tis true he put up a ver - y game fight, Just coon got so ex - cit - ed that he climed a per-sim - mon then the bear hugged this coon he squeezed him a lit - tle too tree tight, The bear sat down up - on the ground and the tight, The coon he then lost his raz - or but the coon climbed out on a limb, He cast his eyes to the bear held on with a vim, He cast his eyes to the God in the skies and these words he said to him.

God in the skies and once more he said to him.

CHORUS.

Oh Lord, didn't you de-liv-er Daniels from the Li-on's den? Also de-liv-er Jo-nah from the bel-ly of the whale and then, Three

He-brew children from the fie-ry furnace so the good books do de-clare Now

Lord if you can't help me for goodness sake don't you help that bear. bear.

TRY THIS OVER ON YOUR PIANO. I LIVE IN LAZYLAND.

Words and Music by ARTHUR J. LAMB.

I live in La - zy - land, Down by a rip-pling stream,

An-y thing I want I can al-ways get, when I go to sleep and dream, I've au-to-mo-biles and di-a-mond rings and pal-a-ces rich and grand, — It's al-ways been my per-ma-nent re - si-dence I live in La - zy - land. —
