NOTE: At  marked "business," the stuttering boy whistles and snaps his finger before he is able to conclude.
The lisping girl, at this point, pauses while she twists her tongue to pronounce the word "stick."

I'll for-get you... when all the sil-ver of the moonlight Fades for-ev-er... And ne-er will bring love's dream a-gain... When hea-ven's glad-ness has turned to sad-ness... I'll try to for-get you in vain.

THO' you have said "forget me";
Tho' you have said "goodbye";
You taught me love's deep meaning,
And love can never die.
Still in my dreams it always seems
We'll meet when clouds roll by.

I'll forget you when I can live without the sunshine,
I'll forget you when I can live without the rain,
When summer roses forget their fragrance
And the song bird his sweet refrain.
I'll forget you when all the silver of the moonlight,
Fades forever and ne'er will bring love's dream again;
When heaven's gladness has turned to sadness,—
I'll try to forget you in vain.

From all the world I chose you,
Heart of my heart to be;
Now you have left me sighing,
Tossing on love's great sea,
I pray love's star that gleams afar
May guide you back to me.

Annelu Burns.
