ENCORE VERSES

1

I'll sing a little song, it won't take long,
If I sing it wrong why ring the gong,
Then I will say to you so long,
And start at once for old Hong Kong.
Then a tear to my eye 'twill surely bring,
And I'll call you a saucy thing,
Then for the patrol you all may ring,
And hear the copper sweetly sing.
Chorus, Ta-ra-ra-Boom-der-é, etc.

2

Played a little poker the other night,
With a jay I thought I had all right.
The hand I held was out of sight,
I held them close, I held them tight.
The hand I held contained four kings
I bet all my stuff on the pretty things
But the rube at me four aces flings.
He copped my stuff and gently sings
Chorus, Ta-ra-ra-Boom-der-é, etc.

3

A jay came in from Buffalo,
Who long had let his whiskers grow;
They were white as the driven snow,
They were great for the wind you know.
He was no yank, now that is true,
He was no Yank, now that is true,
He sold mouse-traps in Kalamazoo,
He was fond of music that was new,
So the wind played this as it passed through.
Chorus, Ta-ra-ra-Boom-der-é, etc.
