

A NOVELTY SONG SUCCESS

The

Ostend e

(I'VE LOVED YOU FROM THE START)

WORDS BY

C.E. BRANDON

MUSIC BY

MAXWELL GOLDMAN

50

BUCK & LOWNEY
Publishers of Music That Sells
St. Louis, Mo.

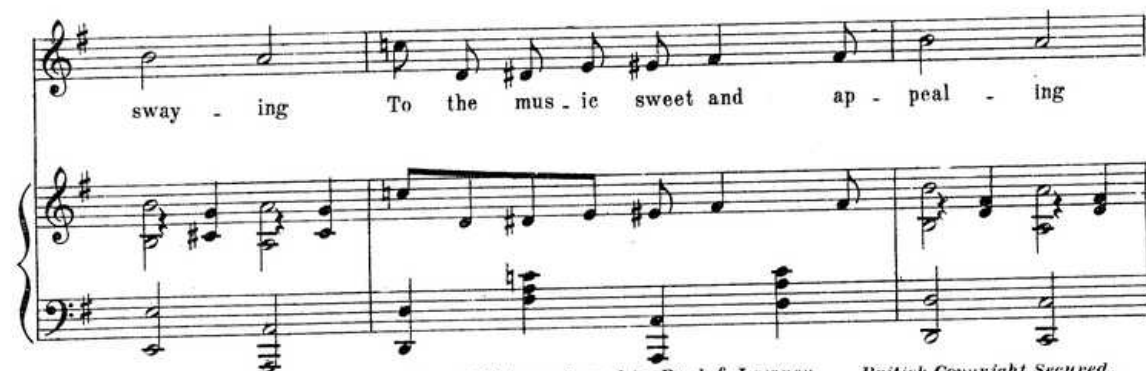

(THE OSTENDE SONG.)

"I'VE LOVED YOU FROM THE START."

Words by
CLARENCE E. BRANDON.

Music by MAXWELL GOLDMAN.

Moderato.

Copyright 1911 by Maxwell Goldman. Copyright transferred to Buck & Lowney. British Copyright Secured.

"OSTENDE DANCE" The original Ball Room Craze
Full Description with each copy.

gen - tly ech - oes thro' the air — Girl - ies eyes like stars bright - ly gleam - ing Of a he - ro bold she's a - dream - ing

Hand in hand, so hap - py, they're glid - ing, side by side —

I've Loved etc, 4.

* Use small notes if too high.

"VIOLETS AND YOU SWEETHEART" Most Beautiful
Ballad of recent years.

As you skip, and trip, and glide a - long, Telling of a love that's staunch and strong, She'll cud - dle up to you and softly whis - per, "Are you pos - i - tive there's no - one el - se's sis - ter," Then you build some cas - tles in the air, and you tell her "there are none so fair" then you stroll off to a cos - ey chair, Locked in arms, mid the palms, to spoon -

"GARDEN OF HEARTS"

A waltz with a simple,
dreamy, haunting melody

The Loved etc., 4.

That's when you want to tell that you love her sin - cere - ly

With - out her love this world would seem so cold and drear - y

Ask her — if you can call and try to win her heart, She'll whis - per — come of - ten mis - ter, — I've loved you from the start. —

"SIR KNIGHT" One of those catchy Two-Steps,
That's just a little different.

I've Loved etc., 4.

Words by
C. E. BRANDON

Ballad Success

Music by
L. BUCK

VIOLETS AND YOU SWEETHEART.

VIOLETS AND YOU SWEETHEART.

Words by C. E. BRANDON.
REFRAIN.

Music by L. BUCK.

Slowly with expression.

Vio - lets vio lets al ways re call days of joy dear Of the days when you cared for me so Of the time when you loved me I know Vio - lets mf molto espress.

p

Copyright MCMXII by Buck & Lowney St. Louis, Mo.

PUBLISHERS OF
THE ORIGINAL OSTENDE DANCE, BY MAXWELL GOLDMAN

4114
m.
D48
box 118
no. 31