Gems of Melody No. 6.

W. F. SUDDS.

The musical score is composed of four staves of music for a piano. It is divided into two columns by a vertical bar in the center. Each column contains two staves, one for the treble clef (G-clef) staff and one for the bass clef (F-clef) staff. The music is in common time and uses a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The notation includes various note values such as eighth and sixteenth notes, rests, and dynamic markings like 'mf' (mezzo-forte). Measures 1 through 8 are shown, separated by measure lines. The music concludes with a final measure ending in a key signature of one sharp (G-sharp).

INCOMPARABLY THE BEST—THE KING OF PIANO INSTRUCTORS —ENDORSED BY PRESS AND PROFESSION.

NATIONAL SCHOOL FOR THE PIANO-FORTE.

BY W. F. SUDDS.

It is designed, not only for those who desire to become professional pianists, but also for those who aim to become accomplished amateurs; and for those who are compelled to become virtuoso players, it will be found the most valuable and ever-published work in existence, written briefly to the following points:

1. It teaches the first principles of music, partly by means of musical writing lessons, to be filled out by the pupil, affording a much clearer and easier way of overcoming first difficulties than other works of kind contain.

2. The exercises are more carefully graded, into being, — simple to but one new feature at a time, while in each case the necessary explanation, which are usually too numerous to give orally, are, as far as possible, written at least.

3. The art of fingerings, touch, accent, etc., is more fully treated than in average works.

It contains full and complete instructions in Harmony and Thorough-bass, subjects all-important, and yet scarcely hinted at in other Piano-forte Methods.

5. It instructs the student in the principles of vocal accompaniment, including playing from a vocal score, thereby preparing him to be an efficient church organist, when necessary; this, too, is peculiar to the work.

6. It is the only piano school which treats, at any length, on the proper use of the so-called, and much-abused "loud and soft." On this subject alone, the work is of priceless value to the young student.

7. We find among its contents, the best of musical form, phrasing, etc., made plain and interesting to the pupil.

8. Aside from more than the usual amount of so-called technical matter, there is interspersed a valuable series of piano pieces, selected from the works of Schubert, Mendelssohn, Meyerbeer, Rossini, Bellini, etc., with explanatory notes concerning the peculiarities and proper performances of each.

9. And last, but not least, is included a dictionary of music, with proper pronunciation of names and musical terms, with biographies of prominent ancient and modern musicians and composers.

That the "National School" "lives to the student the shortest" and best possible read to "proficiency, is beyond a doubt, especially when we consider the well-known ability and popularity of the author, selected as ever before. And after a glance at the foregoing, it is impossible for any person to say that this book contains more than double the amount of musical information found in any other work of the kind.

WHAT NEW ENGLAND SAYS:

THOS. P. I. STACEY, Ruth, Mass.

The National School is rightly named.

From what I knew of your work to another's extent, "Antennae Items," I had reason to expect much in your new work, and expectations are more than met.

I find as many new features and such masterly treatment of them as I expect, that I can hardly believe we that, till I have seen it.

It is just what we need. No instruction book I have seen has been equaled with it in what they do embrace. I hope it may meet with success it merits.

JULIUS EICHBERG (Boston Conservatory of Music), Boston, Mass.

I find "National School" a useful and well-planned work, well adapted to its purpose, and a welcome addition to the many excellent methods that have been published here and in Europe. I wish you all success.

The Pilot, Boston, Mass.

An exhaustive and valuable book.

S. SYLVESTER, New Haven, Conn.

Our teachers consider "National School" the best of all piano schools published in the United States.

C. H. KIMBALL, Manchester, N. H.

The publishers do not claim enough for "National School." It meets a demand never so thoroughly supplied before.

F. A. FOWLER, New Haven, Conn.

I consider that "National School" has no rival among American publications.

A. S. BELDING, Fitchburg, Mass.

I can confidently recommend "National School" to all who wish for an instruction book complete in all the details of piano-forte playing.

B. R. LOUIS MAAS, Boston, Mass.

After a careful survey of "National School," I am glad to say that it is one of the very best books of that description that has been brought under my notice. It is simple, comprehensive, and yet exhaustive—containing everything that can be sought for in anything of its kind. I shall be glad to recommend and use it as far as it is in power.

WHAT THE MIDDLE STATES SAY:

Albany (N. Y.) Morning Express.

Destined to have a large sale.

MORGAN & HAWKINS, Middletown, N. Y.

Our teachers are well pleased with "National School."

Phila. (Pa.) Chronicle-Herald.

An admirable and exhaustive work.

Harrisburg (Pa.) Independent.

Contains more than double the amount of musical information found in any other book of the kind.

GEO. F. BRONSON, Philadelphia, Pa.

I find "National School" a excellent work.

As a book for teachers of the piano-forte, I can strongly recommend it.

HENRY ROBINSON, Easton, Pa.

I have been very partial to Richardson's justly popular method, but, however, I am now inclined to a metallophone, and it is a time to see a metallophone, and it lets me have a clear explanation to scholars of many puzzling details.

I find that "National School" has all the merits of Richardson's, with the following additional ones, viz.: Entertaining and instructive duets; remarks upon the proper use of the pedals; clear explanations of various embellishments; latest studies of modern masters, Heller, Kohler, Liszt, and others; the exercises upon accent and remarks upon vocal accompaniment; the excellent musical and biographical dictionary, and, by no means the least important, the fine treatise on harmony with its numerous examples.

JAS. N. BROWN, Philadelphia, Pa.

The "National School" has been examined at length. It gives me pleasure to endorse its completeness and the clearness with which all the rudimentary points have been explained. I am particularly pleased with the retention of the various studies, etc. I have nothing but praise, furthermore, for the writing lessons, the several dictionaries, and the short but satisfying treatise on harmony.

A. H. EVERETT, Allentown, Pa.

"National School" is a very thorough and minute work. It certainly contains everything that can be desired by teacher or pupil.

ADAM GARNETT, Philadelphia, Pa.

In every way I find "National School"

the most practical work for that king of instruments—the piano—that has ever been brought to my notice, and I feel that I can say confidently, and without presumption, that it is not only a thorough instructor, but also an encyclopedic, which I can recommend most heartily to the profession.

A. H. ROSKIN, Philadelphia, Pa.

I have thoroughly examined "National School," and have no hesitation in pronouncing it one of the best and most thorough instructors.

I think Mr. Sudds embodies many new and original ideas in his work, which cannot fail to prove of great value.

JNO. R. SWENY, Chester, Pa.

I think "National School" a grand success in every way.

JNO. P. DONOGHUE, Chester, Pa.

"National School" is a most excellent and progressive work for the piano student, and I am pleased to have the opportunity of expressing my approval of its many good points.

MASSAH M. WARREN, Philadelphia, Pa.

"National School" is a admirable work, giving the different grades of study well systematized and sufficiently varied, without being too voluminous.

Louis Braxton, New York.

I have carefully examined "National School," and find it a very thorough work, superior to any method published.

ANNA BELM ELLIS, Elizabethtown, Pa.

"National School" is an admirable work. It will give me pleasure to recommend it.

DUDLEY BUCK, Brooklyn, N. Y.

I have examined "Nat'l School," and am glad to say that it is a well-constructed and good work, covering all essential points of piano-playing and which, properly made use of,

cannot fail to produce good players.

I trust that you will be rewarded for the labor and pains you have evidently taken.

Music and Drama, New York.

"National School" will prove an exceedingly useful work, containing, as it does, a vast amount of information in a condensed form; and most of the studies and pieces are such as will prove useful to the student in forming the hand and acquiring "touch."

WHAT THE SOUTHERN STATES SAY:

Wm. H. STEIN, Wheeling, W. Va.

I consider "National School" the best and most comprehensive I have ever had for sale.

Wheeling (W. Va.) Register.

A valuable book of instruction and reference.

S. S. DOYLE, Washington, D. C.

I think "National School" a very complete work. It contains all the great requisites of an instructor—thoroughness, progression, comprehensiveness, in a word, completeness; leaving the pupil with nothing to be desired.

WHAT THE WESTERN STATES SAY:

W. S. B. MATTHEWS, Chicago, Ill.

I have examined your "National School" and the "Piano-Forte" with care, and regard it as by far the most comprehensive work of the kind yet issued.

It cannot but do good wherever adopted. I hope it may meet the success it deserves.

You "National School" I find to be a most excellent work. It has so many advantages over all the others of the kind, that it will fail to take the lead.

I. G. LOOMIS, La Crosse, Wis.

"National School" is certainly a very fine work, and pronounced so by all who have seen it.

Hannibal Sage, Lapeer, Mich.

The use of "National School" should be international, for it has more features of merit than any other similar work. Its illustrations and explanations are a great assistance to the teacher and its many other good things are all appreciated. It is a real masterpiece.

Mrs. M. W. KINNEY, Plymouth, Ind.

I have examined your "National School," and pronounce it an excellent work.

G. W. WARREN, Evansville, Ind.

"National School" is, without doubt, one of the most comprehensive-instructors.

I wish you the success the merits of the book deserve.

WILL L. THOMPSON, the popular song writer, East Liverpool, Ohio.

I am very much pleased with "National School." It shows careful work of a thorough musician. I believe it will become a standard.

J. H. LEWIS, Fayette, Ohio.

"National School" is the best book of its kind I have ever seen.

Beginners will find it an excellent book for advanced pupils.

It is a instruction book, an encyclopedia, a history and biography combined in one. It has no superior and is the work of a masterly musician. Our pianist, Mrs. Perry, agrees with me.

C. J. WHITNEY, Detroit, Mich.

Sudder's "Piano Method" is the best work of the kind we ever saw and it will certainly become popular.

CANADA'S VERDICT.

I think it the best school of its kind, and it will certainly have a very large sale amongst the more prominent teachers in Canada and the United States.

It will be found the most valuable aid ever published.
