cres.

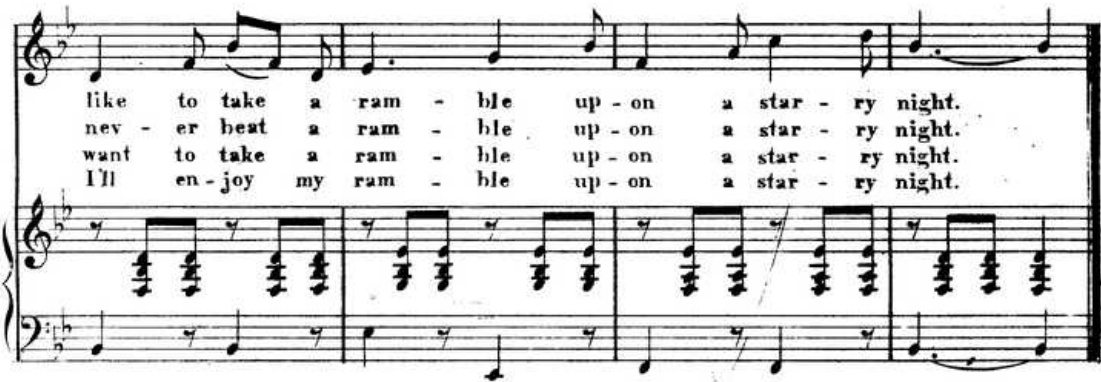

1. I like a game at Croquet, or howling on the green, I
 2. Talk about your bathing or strolling on the sands, Or
 3. I like to take my sweet-heart, "of course you would," said he, And
 4. Some will choose ve-lo-ci-pede And o-thers take a drive, And

mp

like a lit-tle boat ling, to pull a-against the stream;
 some un-seen ve-ran-dah where gen-tle ze-phyr fans,
 soft-ly whis-per in her ear "how dear-ly I love thee!"
 some will sit and mope at home half dead and half a-live,

But of all the games that I love best, to fill me with de-light, I
Or rol-ling home in the morn-ing, boys, and ve-ry near-ly fight, Could
And when you pic-ture to yourselves, the scenes of such de-light, You'll
And some will choose a steam-boat, and o-thers ev-en fight, But like to take a ram-ble up-on a star-ry night.

nev-er heat a ram-ble up-on a star-ry night.
want to take a ram-ble up-on a star-ry night.
I'll en-joy my ram-ble up-on a star-ry night.

CHORUS.

A star-ry night for a ram-ble, In a flow'-ry dell,

Thro' the bush and bram-ble, Kiss, and nev-er tell.
