THERE'S A LITTLE BLUE STAR IN THE WINDOW AND IT MEANS ALL THE WORLD TO ME.

Lyric by
PAUL B. ARMSTRONG.

Music by
F. HENRI KLIKKMANN.

Andante moderato.

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It begins with a piano introduction in B-flat major, 4/4 time, marked 'Andante moderato'. The piano part features a flowing melody in the right hand and a supporting bass line in the left hand, with dynamics ranging from mf to mp and rull. (rushing). The vocal melody enters in the first system with the lyrics 'There's a When the'. The second system continues with 'lit-tle blue star in the win-dow, And it means all the world to me; — There's a sun sinks to rest in the eve-ning And the stars in the dark-'ning sky — Shine with'. The third system contains the lyrics 'lad who is true To the Red, White and Blue, And he's serv-ing his Flag o'er the sea. — But it soft, ten-der light, Till the heav-ens are bright, Then a glo-ri-ous sight greets the eye: — But the'. The fourth system concludes with 'does not re-flect gold-en sun-shine, Nev-er gleams in the dead of night; — In the brightest of stars in the heav-ens Does not shine with the brill-ian-cy — As the'. The piano accompaniment continues throughout, providing harmonic support and texture for the vocal line.
