

Musical Supplement
to the SUNDAY CHRONICLE

Chicago, Sunday, Jan. 20th 1901.

"She's the Real Thing my Baby"

WORDS AND MUSIC BY THEO. A. NORTHROP.

f

You have heard of cul - led girls who can set your heart a - whirl, But you
Up and down the cul - led line, they all know that she is mine, For they've Till ready.

have to see the girl that is my ba - by.... She has beau - ty, style, and art, and from her I'll nev - er part. She's a heard that An - ge - li - na is my ba - by.... When we go out for a walk, all the oth - er darkies talk Of her Copyright, MCM, by Howley, Haviland & Co. English Copyright Secured.

Used by permission of Howley, Haviland & Co., owners of the copyright.

clean per - sim - mon Georg - ia cul - led la - dy..... At all par - ties where she's seen, There she Par - is dress and hat they'd like—well, may be..... I have heard the nig - gers fret, When they reigns as re - gal queen, You can wag - er that its migh - ty hard to beat her,.... She's so see this gay sou-brette, With her grace - ful form di - vine, just like a rain - bow,.... There is rall.

grace - ful and pe-tite when she prom-en-ades the street, That the coons for miles a-round run up to see her...
none can set the pace for she's al - ways in the race, She's a 'ris - to-cratic, plu - to-cratic so - lo....

CHORUS.

She's the real thing, my ba - by, when she prom-e-nades the street, She's a bright-ly cul-tured la - dy, and for style she can't be beat; A won-drous ed - u - ca - tion has the girl I love so well, She's the real thing, my ba - by, A high-toned cul - led belle. She's the belle.

She's The Real Thing! My Baby. 3 pp-3d p.

6:11,
M1
2:42
12:12
2-26